How To Do Spirit Cooking

(Note to readers: this study is written in the form of a lecture script for a live presentation which you will be able to watch soon on YouTube and on my website.)

Welcome to the second episode of Witchcraft 101, my new Hebrew Roots teaching series. I'm Ron Buhler from www.truthdepot.net and I'll be your host and instructor for today's show, which is entitled "How To Do Spirit Cooking ... and much more!" Each episode in this series is designed to "reprove the unfruitful works of darkness" (Ephesians 5:11), as we are admonished to do by the Apostle Sha'ul (or "Paul") and the Ruach ha Kodesh (or "Holy Spirit") Who inspired him, and none of them will involve the actual practice of witchcraft, nor will the presence or assistance of the adversary be invoked at any time. Due to the sensitive nature of the subject matter we will be dealing with, all episodes are rated at least PG or Parental Guidance recommended, and this episode is rated Parental Guidance REQUIRED before, during, and after reading or viewing of this study by underage students. In case there's anyone here today or watching online who's not familiar with the Hebrew Roots movement, I'd like to explain briefly the shawl that I'm wearing. It's not some specialty item from a witch's wardrobe, it's a Jewish prayer shawl or talit with the four tassels or tzit tzit in the four corners that all Jewish men are commanded to wear, to remind them to walk in all the commandments of YAHUAH. You can do more study on the talit in Numbers 15 and on my website.

Before we launch into our discussion, I'd like to open with a word of prayer requesting divine guidance for each one watching or reading and for myself. Please kneel with me if you are able to do so.

"Heavenly Father YAHUAH, we come before You today to praise Your Holy Name, to acknowledge You as holy, holy, holy, the Elohim of Eternity, the same yesterday, today, and forever, our one and only true Father, F-Author, Author, Author-ity, our one and only legitimate Authority over every aspect of our lives, at Whose every word we have the duty and privilege to tremble, so that You as the Divine Potter can shape us into vessels of honour that are useful to You. We acknowledge you as the Author of all that is noble and righteous, the One in Whom is no darkness at all. Heavenly Father, You are the only One we want as our Father or Author, but somehow due to the mysterious workings of the adversary, we know that things have come in to our lives that You did not author, and we pray for divine illumination today as we endeavour to understand how that has happened, and how we can get back on track so that You will be willing to accept us as Your sons and daughters. Please give me divine unction as I lead out in this discussion, and give us all the presence and guidance of the Ruach ha Kodesh, so that we can learn today everything You want us to learn. Hallelu-YAH, Amen."

You may be wondering, exactly why do we need a witchcraft demonstration to help us understand truth? Isn't the devil the father of lies? (John 8:44) Good questions, and to answer them I'd like to review a bit of history with you. In Israel during Bible times, the elders who were to guide the nation spiritually were required to study witchcraft, not to practice it, but in order to recognize it and get rid of it and those who practiced it whenever and wherever it might rear its ugly head in their midst. They knew that if witchcraft was not recognized and dealt with in a timely fashion, it would grow like a cancerous tumour under one pleasing pretext or another until fatal spiritual damage was done to many unsuspecting souls. It is for this reason that I will be sharing with you today deeply disturbing occult secrets and arcane knowledge that you have probably never encountered before. Put on your spiritual seatbelts, because we will be travelling over some very rough roads and past some horrifying and revolting spectacles on our way to revolutionary truth so powerful and dynamic that its implications will touch every aspect of your life and affect every element of your thinking.

If your household was like ours or like virtually every other typical household on the planet, how to cook up spirits was not on the top ten, top hundred, or even top thousand topics of kitchen conversation until the fall of 2016, when pioneering cyber journalist Julian Assange released some leaked emails on his WikiLeaks website that changed the course of history. In case you didn't catch all the details at that time, I'd like to share with you a couple of articles dealing with spirit cooking which were published shortly after the WikiLeaks bombshells were dropped. The first article, by Whitney Webb at www.trueactivist.com is entitled "Spirit Cooking: How WikiLeaks Revealed the Occult Blood Rituals of Hillary's Inner Circle" and reads as follows:

WikiLeaks has given the public plenty to review in the past month. Having released the emails of Hillary Clinton's campaign chair, John Podesta, practically everyday, many astounding revelations about the inner working of Hillary's inner circle as well as the US political system in general have come to light. However, there have been some truly unusual emails in the mix, including those pointing to the influence of aliens on the federal government and Podesta's own passionate stance on the disclosure of alien life. Yet, the most disturbing emails coming from Podesta were published only this week and they imply that something truly dark and sinister is at work within Clinton's inner circle and, perhaps, the US political elite in general. In an email sent to Podesta in 2015, Podesta's brother Tony passes along an invitation to a "Spirit Cooking" dinner hosted by Marina Abramovic, a performance artist known for use of ritualized gore. Marina's email clearly shows a friendly relationship with the Podesta brothers, signing off saying "with all my love, Marina."

So, what is "spirit cooking" and why does it matter? Before going any further, watch the below video showing Abramovic prepare for one of her spirit cooking dinners in 1997. She uses congealed pig's blood to paint cryptic, coded messages on the walls of an empty house and covers effigies of small children in the blood as well.

Why would someone attend an event like this? This is where things get interesting. "Spirit Cooking" is a term first invented by English writer and ceremonial magician Aleister Crowley. Crowley created spirit cooking as a "sacrament in the religion of Thelema." Thelema is a religion founded by Crowley that involves the worship of ancient Egyptian deities. Crowley founded it after he was allegedly contacted by a "praeterhuman" or non-corporeal being calling itself Aiwass who dictated to Crowley a text outlining the basis of the Thelema religion. This “religion” is extremely popular with the global elite as well as well-connected celebrities and is easily recognized by the use of the phrase that embodies the philosophical law of Thelema: “do what thou wilt.” Within this context, spirit cooking is an occult performance during which menstrual blood, breast milk, urine, and sperm are used to create a “painting.” In the video, the words written by Abramovic offer the “recipe” for the painting, which is said to ritually symbolize the union of man with the microcosm, and macrocosm. It is also used during sex cult rituals and is used as an aphrodisiac recipe by the elite. One of these “recipes” calls for the practitioner to do the following: “with a sharp knife cut deeply into the middle finger of your left hand. Eat the pain.” Is it a coincidence that Podesta emailed his doctor a few days later worried about an infected finger?

In light of the unusual nature of this event, some may argue that this “spirit cooking” dinner was just another one of Abramovic’s provocative performances. However, Abramovic is on record saying that these rituals are only art if performed in public. If they are performed in private, they represent something else entirely – a deep, intimate spiritual communion. Podesta and his brother, and likely many more in the elite circles of US politics, are part of this occult religion whose rituals glorify gore, death, sacrifice, and sex.

Though Podesta's involvement in Crowley-inspired sex magick may come as a shock to many, it is a sad reality that many celebrities, politicians, and other members of the elite have been involved in this type of activity for some time. Occult rituals abound in today's world, for those who are able to recognize them. Take for instance the opening ceremonies of the Gotthard tunnel in Switzerland. Instead of going for a simple ribbon-cutting ceremony, Switzerland's government put on a grotesque ritual performance complete with Baphomet and half-naked performers bowing to him. The performance was attended by world leaders such as Germany's Merkel and France's Hollande, yet no one batted an eyelash considering the grim and disturbing nature of the ceremony. If we are to change the sickness that permeates our world, we must first understand the sickness within the elite and their perverse "religion" that compels them to celebrate gore, death, and sacrifice. (end of article 1)

The second article, from www.churchmilitant.com and entitled "Clinton Campaign Linked To Satanic Rituals" reads as follows:

DETROIT (ChurchMilitant.com) - A new email released by WikiLeaks shows a fascination with the occult involving John Podesta, Hillary Clinton's campaign chairman, and his brother. The email was sent from occult artist Marina Abramović in June 2015 and is addressed to John Podesta's brother Tony — a long-time Democrat lobbyist involved with the Clintons and Obama.

Dear Tony,

I am so looking forward to the Spirit Cooking dinner at my place. Do you think you will be able to let me know if your brother is joining?

All my love, Marina

Tony asks his brother, "Are you in NYC Thursday July 9[?] Marina wants you to come to dinner[.] Mary?"

A YouTube video shows Abramović painting with a congealed mixture of menstrual blood, breast milk and semen. With it, she paints the phrases: "Mix fresh breast milk with fresh sperm," "Fresh morning urine, sprinkle over nightmare dreams," and "'With a sharp knife cut deeply into your middle finger, eat the pain." She finishes by pouring blood over a small human-shaped doll.

While some contend Abramović's spirit cooking is mere performance art, it's actually a satanic ritual started by noted satanist Aleister Crowley.

The use of human body fluids is common in satanic "sacraments," more notably in Crowley's "cake of light," which is his sacrilegious take on the Blessed Sacrament. It's a host composed of flour, honey, and various bodily fluids including menstrual blood, semen, and breast milk. Crowley noted in his book "Magick Book 4, Liber ABA":

A Eucharist of some sort should most assuredly be consummated daily by every magician, and he should regard it as the main sustenance of his magical life. It is of more importance than any other magical ceremony, because it is a complete circle. The whole of the force expended is completely re-absorbed; yet the virtue is that vast gain represented by the abyss between Man and God.

The magician becomes filled with God, fed upon God, intoxicated with God. Little by little his body will become purified by the internal lustration of God; day by day his mortal frame, shedding its earthly elements, will become in very truth the Temple of the Holy Ghost. Day by day matter is replaced by Spirit, the human by the divine; ultimately the change will be complete; God manifest in flesh will be his name.

According to Cassandra Fairbanks, "Abramović is known for her often-gory art that confronts pain and ritual. Her first performance involved repeatedly, stabbing herself in her hands. The next performance featured her throwing her nails, toenails, and hair into a flaming five-point star — which she eventually jumped inside of, causing her to lose consciousness."

Abramović has also noted that her work is more than mere "art" but crosses into the occult. In a comment left at Reddit in answer to a question from someone asking what role the occult has in art, Abramović responds:

Everything depends on which context you are doing what you are doing. If you are doing the occult magic in the context of art or in a gallery, then it is art. If you are doing it in different context, in spiritual circles or private houses or on TV shows, it is not art. The intention, the context for what is made, and where it is made defines what is art or not. (end of article 2)

So there you have it – the complete recipe used by witches to “cook up” or conjure spirits! Some technical procedural details are not included in the articles I cited, of course, but we can make educated guesses to fill in the blanks. For example, from whom and how was the essence of human male (i.e. semen) obtained? Was “all my love” from Marina sufficient “love” to perform blow jobs on John and Tony Podesta to source this required ingredient? I’m not a betting man, but if I was, based on Revelation 17:4, I’d put money on exactly that scenario!

In Revelation 17 and 18 Mystery Babylon is depicted as a great whore with a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication, which would be, of course, the seed of the men she “serviced.” Historically, this whore has been understood in a spiritual and symbolic sense to be the Roman Catholic Church and by extension the United States of America, which has been largely under the control of the Roman Catholic Church and which causes worship to be directed toward the Roman Catholic Church as noted in Revelation 13. I find it fascinating to consider the possibility that our gracious Creators have given us confirmation of that understanding by exposing to our view a literal whore in the person of Marina Abramovic who cavorts with men at the highest levels of power in the United States government, and comes complete with a spirit cooking cup in her hand containing the filthiness of her fornication. Astounding! And so pathetically sad that a land once blessed by the Elohim of Heaven has morphed into cursed enchanted ground where demons and men and women possessed by demons roam about as roaring lions, seeking whom they may devour (I Peter 5:8) .... a literal reincarnation of Atlantis, or the world before the flood of Noah, overflowing with wickedness, corruption, violence, and continually evil imaginations of the hearts of men. (Genesis 6:5-12)

Moving on .... most discussions of spirit cooking will take you through the WikiLeaks Podesta emails, the spirit cooking recipe, the history of Marina Abramovic, and so on, but they will not answer the most obvious question anybody in their right mind should be asking, “Why would anyone want to participate in a spirit cooking session?” And then, when the answer to that question is obtained, one more question will demand an answer, and that question is, “How or why in the world does that work?”

I have to tell you that answers to these questions are very hard to come by, because the prince of darkness and all that is occult or hidden would very much prefer that you remain in darkness regarding his methods and goals. However, by the grace of our Heavenly Father YAHUAH, the guidance of the Ruach ha Kodesh/Holy Spirit, and some deep diving into certain dark corners of the internet, I have obtained answers to both of these questions and will reveal them to you today.

First off, let's deal with the question, "Why would anyone want to participate in a spirit cooking session?" In order to answer this question, you need some detail regarding what happens after the witch has sourced all her ingredients and mixed them together in her cup or cauldron. At this point she gives each participant in the "service" a portion, which he or she proceeds to consume. After consumption is completed, something very interesting happens. An icon pops up on the participant's mental homepage, or a voice is heard inside the mind, or something else equivalent happens, conveying the following message or functional equivalent from a familiar spirit: "Your worship or service is acknowledged, and now your wish is my command – what do you want me to do for you?" The participant can then request assistance with business deals, curses on or the death of specified individuals, help with political races, assistance in winning lawsuits, and so on, and a demon will accompany the participant until the requested task is carried out.

This is raw witchcraft, and after finding out what it involves you might call it disgusting, but for the record, our Heavenly Father has another word for it, toavah or an abomination (Deuteronomy 18:10-12), and he commands that all involved with it be put to death. (Exodus 22:18) I would strongly urge you to search YouTube for an excellent interview of Roger Morneau entitled "A Trip Into The Supernatural." I won't spoil the story for you by telling you in advance how it unfolds, but I will say that as you watch the interview you will learn much more about what the devil and his demonic minions are willing and able to do for those who sell their souls to him.

Now we come to the second and most revealing question, "How or why in the world does spirit cooking work?" In order to answer this question I will be doing a spirit cooking demonstration, and once we obtain the answer we will find that it will prompt many more questions, which will cause us to research history going all the way back to creation and the world before the flood, and to research prophecy going all the way forward to the destruction of Babylon the Great and the arrival of YAHUAH's eternal Kingdom.

Alright, let's get going with the spirit cooking demonstration. As you can see, I have my witch's cauldron here, along with four containers labelled for the four ingredients in the spirit cooking recipe, and my witch's broom to mix all the ingredients together in the cauldron. Don't worry if you can't actually see the ingredients as I pour them in to the cauldron; this is magic, after all, and I assure you that everything needed to make a potent spirit cooking mixture will be in the cauldron when I complete the procedure.

We'll start by adding the urine to the cauldron, which will form the base, or become the soup stock, if you please for our mixture. Then, let's add an ample amount of breast milk .... followed by menstrual blood .... and finally, some essence of human male. Let's give our ingredients a good stir, and then see what we've produced. By the way, the first time I presented this study to a live audience, I asked those in attendance what I had mixed up in the cauldron. None of the adults present could come up with the answer, but a perceptive twelve year old boy put up his hand, so I said “Young man, what do you think is in the cauldron?” He promptly answered “A baby!” and he was right, of course! (remove baby doll from the cauldron and hold up at this point) In reality, the witch’s cauldron becomes a vessel for in vitro fertilization, with the urine providing the normal saline base for the biological process, the breast milk providing the nourishing culture medium to sustain cellular life, the menstrual blood providing the female egg, slightly past its best before date but still viable, and the essence of human male providing the catalyzing spark that connects with the female egg to produce a tiny baby! And the horrifying, disgusting reality of this situation, is that when the spirit cooking participants partake of this mixture, they become both murderers and cannibals, and thus enter into the image and replicate the character of our adversary the devil, who has been a cannibal (I Peter 5:8) and murderer (John 8:44) from the beginning! Interestingly, the word cannibal means “priest of Baal,” and those who consume human flesh are called cannibals because priests of Baal routinely consumed human flesh as part of their demonic pagan worship. Nowadays, deep state globalist satan worshippers who eat children as part of their worship service are usually referred to by the more modern sanitized euphemistic term “pedovore.”

It doesn’t matter whether or not each spirit cooking participant gets a tiny baby in his or her portion; by partaking, each one demonstrates willingness to destroy and consume human life made in the image of Elohim, each one incurs the same guilt as far as our Heavenly Father is concerned, and each one gets the same credit as far as the devil is concerned, and it is this credit with the devil that earns demonic assistance in acquiring gain or carrying out curses. To get a better understanding of this principle, I would strongly urge you to listen to an interview of former satanist Zachary King done by Rick Wiles of Trunews. You can listen to the interview on YouTube by searching for “Trunews Radio Zachary King satan’s Strongholds.” The entire interview is very enlightening, but the part particularly relevant to our study today begins at fourteen minutes. At this point Zachary explains that getting demonic assistance for big projects such as hostile corporate buyouts or mergers required the taking of a human life, which was done in the form of abortion performed in a clinical setting with a cooperating doctor and frequently a cooperating pregnant woman who was part of the witchcraft circle or coven, and who was impregnated in order to provide the baby to be murdered in the witchcraft ritual. As you listen to the interview you’ll pick up many more disgusting details that will make the big picture very clear: your Messiah YAHUAHSHUA promises you life and life more abundant if you work with Him in harmony with His instructions as outlined in His Word, and the devil promises you help in acquiring temporal power and material possessions if you work with him on his program of death and destruction .... but if you do work with him, you will lose your own soul, and as our Messiah reminded us, “What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world, but lose his own soul?” (Matthew 16:26)

In summary, the fundamental transaction in spirit cooking is cooperation by the participant with the devil in his program of murder and destruction by actually entering into his image as a murderer and destroyer, in exchange for which he as the prince of this world provides you with assistance to get ahead in the kingdoms of this world that he presides over. And needless to say, John and Tony Podesta became poster boys for the effectiveness of Marina's spirit cooking services, each amassing vast fortunes working with their demon helpers as lobbyists for many powerful corporations. John Podesta was the campaign manager for Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign, and was slated to be the secretary of state in her government, which would have made him one of the most powerful men on the planet! By the great and undeserved grace of our Heavenly Father, and in answer to the fervent prayers of tens of millions of His saints, Hillary lost the election, followers of the Messiah have been given a reprieve to repent of their abominations, and John Podesta became a pathetic footnote in the pages of history.

The principle which we have just discussed, that entering into and willingly participating in the image and character of our adversary ha satan is the secret to obtaining the assistance of demonic spirits towards the realization of personal goals and advancement in the kingdoms of this world, is in fact a principle which works just as effectively when dealing with the Heavenly realm and obtaining the presence and guidance of the Ruach ha Kodesh/Holy Spirit and Heavenly angels to assist you in your efforts to bless others and bring honour and glory to your Heavenly Father and your Messiah YAHUAHSHUA. All who enter into and willingly participate in the image and character of our Creators YAHUAHSHUA and the Holy Spirit, Who came to our planet to bring us life, and life more abundantly (John 10:10), will receive the assistance of ministering spirits or angel messengers and of the Holy Spirit to assist them in the realization of their righteous goals. (Acts 5:32) You will find much more information on the application of this principle in subsequent chapters of this study and in various additional articles included with the book version of this study.

Although we've come across many truly revolting elements of this spirit cooking abomination, possibly the most disturbing and unsettling revelation of all is that the devil gives full credit for murder irrespective of the size or age of the person who is destroyed; a spirit cooking participant gets full credit for murder by participating in the destruction of a one celled human being that is only a few minutes old! Could it be that the devil knows something about human life that a lot of us are not aware of? Reflection on that possibility leads us to ask an age old and apparently very reasonable question,

When Does Life Begin?

Needless to say, this question has perplexed and been debated by generations of theologians, doctors, scientists, and laymen. Various stages of development have been proposed as markers indicating the beginning of life, including:

- After birth when the baby takes its first breath.
- In the womb at the time when the baby is sufficiently developed to survive on its own if born prematurely.
- In the womb when the baby's heart starts beating.
- In the womb when brainwaves are detected.
- In the womb at the moment of conception, when the female egg and the male sperm unite.

As we reflect in frustration at the lack of consensus in professional communities regarding when life begins, it dawns on us that we might find something in Scripture that would help us get the correct answer to this age old question. After all, one of the Big Ten marching orders from our Creators is "Thou shalt not murder," so it would only stand to reason that They must have included the answer to the question under consideration somewhere in the Inspired Writings, otherwise we would have no objective way to know whether abortion, for example, is murder or the moral equivalent of clipping off a fingernail. So, armed with logical certainty that somewhere in Scripture we MUST be told when life begins, we diligently search from Genesis to Revelation for the final word that will allow us to answer this question for once and for all.

To our astonishment, not only do we NOT find anywhere in Scripture any revelation of a developmental landmark or specific point in time which would help us answer the question "When does life begin?" .... but we DO find in multiple places the answer to a question we had not even thought to ask, specifically, "WHERE does life begin?" Take a look:

"Then the word of YAHUAH came unto me (Jeremiah), saying, BEFORE I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and BEFORE thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations." (Jeremiah 1:4,5)

"For thou (YAHUAH) hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well. My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect (i.e. unborn in the womb); and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, WHEN AS YET THERE WAS NONE OF THEM. How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O Elohim! How great is the sum of them!" (Psalm 139:13-17)

"And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life (understood to be springtime, a year [12-13 MONTHS!] - from when this conversation took place); and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son." (Genesis 18:9,10)

"And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham. For he was yet in the loins of his father (100-150 years earlier), when Melchisedec met him." (Hebrews 7:10)

"There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before Elohim, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of YAHUAH blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years. And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before Elohim in the order of his course, according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of YAHUAH. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of YAHUAH standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John (or in Hebrew, Yahuchanan, commonly shortened to Yochanan and pronounced Yo-ha-nan). And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of YAHUAH, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to YAHUAH their Elohim. And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years. And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of Elohim; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings. And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless. And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house. And, AFTER THOSE DAYS HIS WIFE ELISABETH CONCEIVED, and hid herself five months, saying, Thus hath YAHUAH dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men." (Luke 1:5-25)

"Thus saith YAHUAH thy (Jacob's and Israel's v.21) redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am YAHUAH that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself; that frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish; that confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof: That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers: THAT SAITH OF CYRUS, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid. Thus saith YAHUAH to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut; I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron: And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, YAHUAH, which call thee by thy name, am the Elohim of Israel. For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee though thou hast not known me. I am YAHUAH, and there is none else, there is no Elohim beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me, that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am YAHUAH, and there is none else.”

(prophesied through and written by Isaiah 150 years before King Cyrus the Great lived, i.e. appeared in tangible form or was born) (Isaiah 44:24-45:6)

So, we now see that life does not begin .... life BEGAN on this earth six thousand years ago in the Garden of Eden at creation, and it has continued from that time until today in an unbroken stream! What an astounding and glorious revelation! Our Heavenly Father has each one of His sons and daughters in His mind before we ever show up in the womb or walk around on planet Earth! As the inspired writings we have just studied categorically PROVE, the lives of each one of us begin and exist in His mind long before anyone that can be seen, felt, or measured appears in our midst! Hallelu-YAH!

As we rejoice in our discovery of ultimate truth about the origin of life, however, certain other politically incorrect and inconvenient questions come up which demand answers, such as “Why is everyone challenged to find the answer to the question, ‘When does life begin?’ ....when the search for that answer leads only to uncertainty, ambiguity, and confusion .... rather than being challenged to find the answer to the question, ‘Where does life begin?’ .... when the search for THAT answer leads directly to ultimate truth, the proverbial pot of gold at the end of the Heavenly Rainbow?” and “Could it be that there exist entities, professions, and organizations which are morbidly afraid that people will gain knowledge about the ultimate truth we are discussing, and by acting on that knowledge will become an existential threat to their business models, political empires, and claims to fame?” and “Could there be something deeply sinister and evil going on around us continually that would be exposed for what it really is when the actual origin of life is revealed and the implications of that revelation are acknowledged?”

As we ponder these questions, we become more and more troubled, and more and more certain that as we get answers to them, we will encounter and expose something unspeakably, horrifyingly wicked! Coming under divine inspiration, we are compelled to ask one final question:

Do You Practice Sorcery?

Before we answer this question, we should remember that the practice of sorcery is a deal breaker as far as our Heavenly Father is concerned. In His holy Torah He mandates capital punishment for anyone found guilty of practicing sorcery (Exodus 22:18) and John the Revelator is shown that at the end of the age all sorcerers will be thrown into the Lake of Fire and Brimstone and will experience the second death, the final and permanent death from which there will be no resurrection. (Revelation 21:8)

And also, before we can answer this question, we will need to know what the practice of sorcery actually involves. Most people have a general idea of the services a sorcerer or witch would provide, such as casting spells or hexes, laying curses, communicating with the dead (actually, with demons), foretelling the future or fortune telling, and so on .... but for some reason, very few people know that one of the primary services provided by sorcerers and witches in Biblical times and more recent history was .... the sourcing, mixing, and selling of potions to prevent pregnancy in sexually active women, and the provision of abortion and abortifacients (abortion inducing drugs) to pregnant women who wanted to get rid of (i.e. murder) their babies. You can confirm this fact of history by searching the internet for “contraception sorcery witchcraft” and “abortion sorcery witchcraft” and reading for hours the various resources which pull up in your search results. Here is an article written by a Catholic lawyer which is typical of many you will find. As you read please pay particular attention to the familiarity of Jesuits, and by inference the Jesuit Order, with the true nature of contraception and its spiritual lethality. Later in our study I will discuss in much more detail the implications and applications of this familiarity.

The Book Barnacle... Linking Sorcery and Contraception, by PETE VERE

As a young traditional Catholic, I knew theologically that the Church forbade contraception. I didn't quite grasp the why; I simply trusted the Church as best I could. Then in university I studied St. Thomas Aquinas and the natural law, which helped me understand the intellectual basis for rejecting contraception. Yet it was not until I set foot in a Catholic marriage tribunal as a freshly minted canon lawyer that I began to experience, second hand, the destruction contraception wrought on this blessed institution.

I began to research contraception in my spare time. For years I wondered why the Bible said very little about something so destructive of marriage and the family. Then, just before Thanksgiving last, God provided me with the answer while reading Jesuit Fr. John Hardon's essay "Contraception: Fatal to the Faith and to Eternal Life." Fr. Hardon asserted that the early Christians classified contraception as sorcery, paganism and witchcraft.

Stunned, I mentioned this to my wife. I also shared the need I felt to research this question in more depth, and from secular and pagan sources. Sonya smiled. Under the tree come Christmas morning were six books, from various publishers, linking the topics of sorcery, witchcraft, contraception, paganism, and abortion.

Probably the most compelling of the six, from a secular perspective, was John M. Riddle's Eve's Herbs: A History of Contraception and Abortion in the West. Riddle is well known in academic circles as a professor of history at North Carolina State University. Eve's Herbs (ISBN 0-674-27026-6) is a 341-page tome published by Harvard University Press.

Riddle's thesis is simple: Contraception, abortifacients, and abortion-inducing substances are nothing new. The ancient world had knowledge of herbs and other plants that, when administered in certain ways, prevented conception or caused women to abort. This knowledge was passed down orally, usually from mother to daughter. During the Middle Ages much of this knowledge was lost as midwives who practiced contraception and abortion were prosecuted for witchcraft.

"The magic associated with women was often connected to their use of herbs," Riddle writes. He had already explained that because of the Church's opposition to abortion, "much of the practical knowledge of birth control was left in the hands of 'old women,' some of whom became known as midwives. Also pushed, shoved really, away from the central culture were women who knew the anti-fertility herbs and were thought to be witches."

Riddle cites a number of modern studies that corroborate the effectiveness of these anti-fertility herbs when it comes to preventing conception or inducing abortion. "In other words, the deeds described in the 15th century as the sevenfold traits of witchcraft are all creditable, according to modern medicine (with the exception of bestiality and homosexuality)," Riddle states. "Midwives and witches, whether one and the same, knew the drugs to take to reduce fertility."

"Each plant has its own 'secrets' concerning when it will have the desired effect and when its effect may be unsuccessful or even fatal," Riddle adds. "The secrets must be learned and transmitted to others in a chain of learning."

The author repeats the following quotation from modern historian Richard Trexler: "Infanticide was far and away the most common social crime imputed to the aged witches of Europe by the demonologists." While sometimes prone to accepting the claims of anti-Catholic historians, Riddle disputes one of their more common claims, namely, that midwives were often singled out for accusations of witchcraft because they were women of prominence and influence.

"More likely," he writes, "the primary reason witches were persecuted was the same as that for which a woman in Hamburg was burnt to death in 1477: 'because she had instructed young females how to use abortion medicines'." He had already noted that "sexual offences were, by far, the leading offences of which witches were accused in three Essex villages between 1560 and 1599."

Eve's Herbs is an excellent exposé of the wide availability of contraception and abortion in ancient and medieval times. It does a fairly good job, from a secular perspective, of showing the link between contraception, abortion, and the medieval understanding of witchcraft. As such, it should be read by any serious Catholic pro-life activist or moral theologian who struggles to understand the link between contraception, abortion, witchcraft, and paganism.

In showing these links, this book also (albeit probably unintentionally) reinforces the biblical basis for the Church's condemnation of contraception. Nevertheless, it is not a book I would recommend to everyone. The book is written from a secular perspective. The author does not appear to share the Church's aversion to contraception and abortion. He also does not always demonstrate a clear or correct grasp of Catholic teaching. Therefore, the content requires some spiritual and theological maturity to digest. (end of article)

If after reading this article and doing your own research you were to suggest that an ancient sorcery/witchcraft practice and a modern Planned Parenthood facility or medical doctor's office were all functional equivalents, you would be absolutely correct! Now, please reread that last sentence as many times as necessary to fully grasp the enormity of the abomination in our midst! Clearly, there is no difference between abortion and contraception as far as either our Heavenly Father or ha satan our adversary are concerned, and both "services" are part of the basic "service" package provided by sorcerers and witches, by Planned Parenthood, and by your friendly local medical doctor.

Since we now know that human life does not begin at any specific point in time, but rather that it exists in the mind of our Heavenly Father before anything physical is conceived in the womb, we can understand that in order to be blessed from Heaven, any sexual union between a man and his fertile wife must be open to the transmission of life to the next generation, if our Heavenly Father wills for that to come about. It also means that any sexual union between a man and his fertile wife is regarded by our Heavenly Father as sorcery and murder if before, during, or after the union it involves

- contraception in any form, including "the Pill" (a gift from demons and Big Pharma sorcerers – details to follow), condoms (a gift from the Greeks, which is basically the same thing as saying a gift from demons), IUD's (intra-uterine devices), and spermicidal gels and foams including ancient spermicidal substances such as olive oil
- surgical sterilization including vasectomy and tubal ligation
- abortion
- “morning after” pills and all other abortifacients (including the “contraceptive” pill mentioned above, which interestingly functions as an abortifacient rather than a contraceptive a significant percentage of the time, by causing the inside surface of the womb to become inhospitable and unwelcoming to the already fertilized ovum or egg)
- infanticide
- “onanism,” also known as coitus interruptus, which will be discussed in more detail later
- sodomy
- bestiality
- sex with 2 dimensional porn, i.e. on paper or screens
- sex with 3 dimensional porn, i.e. sex robots or sex dolls/i-Dolls (pun intended)

Simply stated, the use of any form of contraception or abortion turns the womb of the woman involved into the precise equivalent of a witch's spirit cooking cauldron, and constitutes the practice of witchcraft as categorically and unequivocally condemned in Torah. By extension from this understanding, we should also note that all forms of sexual attraction or inducement to sexual activity such as are provided by immodest clothing and the exposure of nakedness, without the expectation of children or the desire for children, also constitute witchcraft and result in the exploitation and deception of both the male and female parties involved. The appropriately named Eve Ensler, feminist (i.e. witch; feminism and witchcraft are synonymous), playwright, and author of The Vagina Monologues which raised more than $100,000,000 for feminist causes, stated that the only way for women to control men is through public display of their sexuality. This is a revealing statement on several levels; first, because it explains the conscious or unconscious motivation behind the use of immodest clothing and exposure of nakedness by women, and second, because it reveals the extreme danger to the welfare of both men and women which exists if immodest clothing and exposure of nakedness become commonplace as they have in our society. For 6,000 years we have been experiencing the disastrous results (for both men and women!) of a woman controlling a man (Genesis 3, esp. v. 17) and we (both men and women!) should avoid this scenario at all costs if we want blessings rather than curses from our Creators.

Our adversary ha satan convulses with sickening depraved laughter when he hears discussions about which type or types of contraception are good or acceptable and which are bad or unacceptable. As mentioned earlier, he knows there's not a nickel's worth of difference between them as far as our Heavenly Father is concerned, and he also knows that the real problem in this situation has NOTHING to do with any particular contraceptive or abortifacient method, device, or chemical .... the REAL PROBLEM is with the thinking of the man involved, who wants the pleasure of sexual intimacy with a woman and of planting seed but does not want and/or will not accept the growth of that seed. This thinking is not in harmony with the image of Elohim and men persisting in this way of thinking will not be included in YAHUAH's eternal Kingdom. This matter will be discussed in more detail in the later segment on "onanism."

There's one more thing we need to realize at this point, and that is that any society or profession or "church" that approves, blesses, or permits contraception or the idea that sex is OK when children are in some fashion "prevented," must of necessity also approve, bless, or permit abortion. All contraception or baby "prevention" techniques fail a certain percentage of the time, and abortion must then be the fail-safe backup to accomplish what contraception and its equivalents did not succeed in accomplishing, that is, to permit sex without bringing forth children.

These days there's a lot of discussion about things fake – fake news, fake food, fake laws, fake degrees, fake female assets, and so on, and of course things fake are offensive to our Heavenly Father, because He is the embodiment of truth, and everything fake is a lie. However, there's one type of fake that infuriates Him more than any other, and that is FAKE MEN! He created men in His image, with the capabilities needed to act in harmony with His image, and He is VERY JEALOUS of that image, and how any one He gifts with that image handles the gift he is given. In His holy Torah He includes the following instruction: "He that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of YAHUAH" (Deuteronomy 23:1), and needless to say, each item on the preceding list of anti-life tools is the functional and moral/spiritual equivalent of wounded stones or a missing private member. Our Heavenly Father is clearly VERY SERIOUS about the matter under discussion!

At this point in our discussion, I suspect that some of you reading or watching would like to make a comment and ask a question similar to the following: "I hear your reasoning, I appreciate the many Scriptural references proving that human life begins in the mind of Elohim or 'God,' I get that every item on the preceding list of anti-life tools is designed to make the sexual act unfruitful, but I mean, like, WOW! Murder? Sorcery? Ending up in the Lake of Fire and Brimstone? I've never heard anything this radical in my entire life! Not from any preacher, teacher, doctor, author, guru, news media, not from anywhere or any one! Do you have any more references from Scripture or historical writings that would confirm what you are saying and show us that holy men of old acted in accordance with what you've presented so far?" Thanks for asking, and in fact I do have many such references. Take a look:

The Book of Jasher (referred to in Joshua 10:13 and II Samuel 1:18) chapter 2 verses 17-22: "And Lamech, the son of Methusael, became related to Cainan by marriage, and he took his two daughters for his wives, and Adah conceived and bare a son to Lamech, and she called his name Jabal. And she again conceived and bare a son, and called his name Jubal; and Zillah, her sister, was barren in those days and had no offspring. For in those days the sons of men began to trespass against God, and to transgress the commandments which he had commanded to Adam, to be fruitful and multiply in the earth. And some of the sons of men caused their wives to drink a draught that would render them barren, in order that they might retain their figures and whereby their beautiful appearance might not fade. And when the sons of men caused some of their wives to drink, Zillah drank with them. And child-bearing women appeared abominable in the sight of their husbands, as widows, whilst their husbands lived, for to the barren ones only they were attached." (Author's comment: not only does this reference confirm the inordinate carnality of men before the Flood of Noah, and the willingness of some women to pervert their most basic functioning and reason for being in order to gratify that carnality and get preferential treatment from their men, but it also illustrates the polar opposite of what is right and proper. Jewish Torah scholars who understand the inspired words of Torah which Yahuah has given to Israel, declare that a man has a DUTY to love his wife MORE, NOT LESS for every child she gives him!)

Book of Irenaeus or Iranaeus (a leader of the early church), chapter 18: "And for a very long while wickedness extended and spread, and reached and laid hold upon the whole race of mankind, until a very small seed of righteousness remained among them and illicit unions took place upon the earth, since angels were united with the daughters of the race of mankind; and they bore to them sons who for their exceeding greatness were called giants. And the angels brought as presents to their wives teachings of wickedness, in that they brought them the virtues of roots and herbs, dyeing in colors and cosmetics, the discovery of rare substances, love-potions, aversions, amours, concupiscence, constraints of love, spells of bewitchment, and all sorcery and idolatry hateful to God; by the entry of which things into the world evil extended and spread, while righteousness was diminished and enfeebled."

The Complete Works of Josephus, translated by Wm. Whiston, p. 632: "But, then, what are our laws about marriage? That law owns no other mixture of sexes but that which nature hath appointed, of a man with his wife, and that this be used only for the procreation of children. But it abhors the mixture of a male with a male; and if any one do that, death is his punishment. It commands us also, when we marry, not to have regard to portion, nor to take a woman by violence, nor to persuade her deceitfully and knavishly; but to demand her in marriage of him who hath power to dispose of her, and is fit to give her away by the nearness of his kindred."

A Spiritual and Ethical Compendium to the Torah and Talmud by Rabbi Arthur Segal with Frank Dunne, Jr., 2008, at 46-48: "Genesis 6:11 says that the world was corrupt and filled with robbery. God was going to destroy the world for this corruption and robbery. This seems awfully harsh, especially in today's world where corruption and theft seem commonplace. Rashi (Rabbi Shlomo Yitzhaki, 1040, France) says a better translation of corruption is immorality and idol worship. The Midrash says that adultery, incest and stealing were all part of man's daily schedule. Powerful men would take any women that they chose. The Midrash also says that a major sin of this generation was sexual relations purely for lascivious gratification. Talmud Tractate Sanhedrin 57A says that the world was immersed in jealousy, greed, theft, violence, lying, impatience, intolerance, deception and fraud. The worst of all the transgressions according to both Rashi and Ibn Ezra was that people exploited each other sexually. Sounds rather familiar, doesn't it? Hold on, there's more. The Midrash Vayikra Rabbah says: 'Everyone and everything became amoral. Even animals became so morally corrupt and decadent that one species mated with another species – dogs with wolves, horses with donkeys, snakes with birds. The generation of the Flood was finally wiped away when they started writing songs extolling cohabitation of males with males and males with animals.' Another Midrash says that males just didn't sodomize other males, but that they signed ketobot (marriage contracts) legalizing these relationships."

(Author's comment: there will be much more discussion of same sex relationships later in this study.)

Virtually all leaders of the early Christian church including John Chrysostom, Jerome, Clement of Alexandria, Hippolytus of Rome, Thomas Aquinas, Barnabas, Lactantius, Tertullian, Minucius Felix, and Basil, and many Christian reformers such as Martin Luther, John Calvin, and John Wesley considered both contraception and abortion to be murder and/or the most grievous mortal sin possible for a human being to commit. You can confirm this by searching on the internet using the name of each church leader or reformer mentioned above along with the words "contraception abortion murder mortal sin immorality." The prophet Jeremiah said "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" (Jeremiah 17:9), and our willingness to cavalierly dismiss the fervent teaching of our older brethren in the faith as though these men were some kind of Neanderthals, and in our foolish conceit assert that we are somehow wiser, smarter, or more "spiritual," is a testimony to the deceitfulness and wickedness of our "modern" hearts.

A Solemn Appeal, by James and Ellen White, p. 182, quoting O. S. Fowler, and reflecting the views of the founders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church: "A physician recently avowed his belief that if, by any secret means, however painful or dangerous, he could prevent progeny, he could make a princely fortune in a year. Thank God! No one has found out a specific preventative. Nor ever should; because this will throw open the floodgates of passion, and trample under the foot of unbridled lust nature's great ordinance, nature's great laws."

(Author's comment: the doctor who made this statement in the 1800's obviously did not have witches on his referral roster, and thus did not know that substances such as he dreamed of inventing already existed, but because at that time they could only be obtained through the witchcraft community their usage was not widespread. When these substances and others like them became widely available through the medical profession, the 'floodgates of passion' were indeed opened, and 'unbridled lust' did indeed trample under foot nature's great ordinance and laws, producing the moral anarchy and chaos that surrounds us today!)

Genesis 4:1: “And Adam knew (i.e. sexually) Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from YAHUAH.”

(Author’s comment: Why does the Torah tell us the obvious? – Adam had sexual relations with his wife Eve, and she became pregnant. Because we are to understand from this statement that the appropriate time to “know” your wife sexually is when you’re ready for and can cope with children, and, by inference, to indicate that at a time when you can’t cope with children or with more children, you should not “know” your wife sexually, or in the words of the wise man Solomon, it is a time to “refrain from embracing.” Proverbs 3:5)

Malachi 2:13-17: “And this have ye done again, covering the altar of YAHUAH with tears, with weeping, and crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because YAHUAH hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed (i.e. righteous children). Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. For YAHUAH, the Elohim of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith YAHUAH of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously. Ye have wearied YAHUAH with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of YAHUAH, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the Elohim of judgment?”

(Author’s comment: A husband and wife may think that they are joining themselves together in sexual union, but this is not an adequate understanding of what is going on. In reality, our Heavenly Father is making husband and wife join together as one, and He is doing it for a reason – so that HE can obtain righteous children from that union! I will have much more to say about this passage in the chapter entitled “YAHUAH or God as Businessman.”)

Our Messiah YAHUAHSHUA (Matthew 25:31-46): “When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? Or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it NOT to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal."

(Author's comment: babies are one of the most favourite and common disguises of our Messiah YAHUAHSHUA, and are unarguably amongst the least of His brethren; if we deliver them [from their dark prison in the womb] and provide them with a home to live in, feed them when they're hungry, nurse them when they're thirsty, put clothes on them to cover their nakedness, and look after them when they get sick, our Great King counts it all as though done for and to Him, and ultimately will reward accordingly .... and if we murder those babies through contraception or abortion, or if we neglect babies that we do allow to be born by failing to provide them with shelter, food, drink, clothing, and care when they get sick, our Great King counts it all as though done, or not done, for and to Him, and ultimately will reward accordingly.)

At this point you should have all the information and understanding needed to answer the chapter title question, "Do You Practice Sorcery?" If your answer (to our Heavenly Father, not to me) is "Yes," I would urge you to offer the necessary repentance, request the necessary forgiveness, praise our Heavenly Father that the Messiah's blood is still available to pay the debt you have incurred on your account with your Creators and to provide the forgiveness you need, and then resolve by the grace of Yahuah, and with the empowerment of the Ruach ha Kodesh or Holy Spirit, to travel only on the Holy Highway in the future. You may want to read David's prayer after he sinned with Bathsheba as recorded in Psalm 51 in order to get an idea of how to pray in your circumstance, and you may want to adopt children or support children in poor families or orphanages to make restitution to your Heavenly Father for the years, resources, and opportunities you have squandered.

After our discussion of sorcery and sexual perversion, and before our discussion of YAHUAH or God as Businessman, we need to answer the question:

What Is The One Thing Our Omnipotent And Omniscient Heavenly Father YAHUAH Passionately Desires .... But CANNOT CREATE?

At first glance, this question appears nonsensical and contradictory – how could there be anything a truly omnipotent (or all powerful) and omniscient (or all knowing) Being could not create? If you’re patient and work with me on this, however, you will receive insight that will help you a lot to understand what’s really going on in Scripture and history.

Before we talk about what this amazing thing is that even our omnipotent and omniscient Heavenly Father cannot create, let’s just be reminded of a few things that it is NOT! As we study Scripture, we learn that He has created and already owns the silver and gold, the cattle on a thousand hills, and the world itself (Genesis 1&2, Haggai 2:8, Psalm 50:10-13), so clearly whatever it is that He passionately desires but cannot create is not something that can be described or denominated in any material terms. So let me end the suspense and tell you exactly what it is .... it is FREE-WILLED BEINGS THAT LOVE AND OBEY HIM! He can create free-willed beings, and each one of us is proof of that .... and He can command us to love and obey Him, and that He has done as recorded in Scripture (Deuteronomy 6) .... but being the free-willed beings that we are, we can tell Him to get lost, and most of humanity does exactly that! It remains for the few with wisdom and perception to see His signature on everything truly beautiful and good in the universe, to acknowledge the expression of His love toward us as revealed in His creation, and then to actively seek to learn His will and walk in it as best we can to express our love to Him. As our quest to know and do the will of our Heavenly Father YAHUAH and our Messiah YAHUAHSUA becomes the central focus of our lives, we discover the following instruction: “These words (of Torah) which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and THOU SHALT TEACH THEM DILIGENTLY UNTO THY CHILDREN, AND SHALT TALK OF THEM WHEN THOU SITTEST IN THINE HOUSE, AND WHEN THOU WALKEST BY THE WAY, AND WHEN THOU LIEST DOWN, AND WHEN THOU RISEST UP.” (Deuteronomy 6:6,7) As we ponder these words, it finally dawns on us that our Heavenly Father has given us the great privilege of working with Him to give Him the one thing He passionately desires but cannot create, free-willed beings that love and obey Him, and the priority we should place on children and training them in the ways of righteousness is made clear by observing the priority our Creators, in Whose image we are made, place on children.

In any family, the Creators’ top priority is the child, and this is clearly shown by the ability of a developing child in the womb and while nursing to pull any nutritive substance it needs away from the mother, even if it causes the mother to go into a deficiency state. But what about the father? It is universally understood that a father has a non-delegateable duty to look after his children with his money .... but even more importantly, our Creators do not want any child to arrive on the planet without having a father who wants and is actively rooting for and emotionally supporting him or her! And it is for this reason that our Creators do not want a man to perform the act intended and designed by Them to conceive a child .... if that man is not ready to cheerfully accept the child that may come forth into his life, and give him or her full spiritual and emotional and physical/financial support and cover. Our Creators want and love every child, and expect and require that every man to whom They have given the ability to father a child will diligently emulate their character, and will not only not seek to stop the transmission of life through sexual relations with his wife, but will actively want and love each child that may arrive. Every man should enter the marriage relationship with the specific objective of emulating His Messiah, Who came that we might have life, and have it more abundantly. (John 10:10) He needs to realize that when his Creators said “It is not good that man should be alone; I/We will make him a help meet (or suitable) for him” (Genesis 2:18, 1:26,27), the one They made, the woman Eve/Chavah, was not by herself the answer to his aloneness. She was part of and the beginning of the answer .... but the rest of the answer was the children that would proceed forth from her, who would be the full and final solution to his not good alone state.

Now that we understand exactly what our omnipotent and omniscient Heavenly Father, His Son YAHUAHSHUA, and the Ruach ha Kodesh or Holy Spirit passionately desire but cannot create, let us explore Their plan of action to obtain what They want in our next chapter, entitled:

YAHUAHSHUA Our Messiah as Businessman

As A Financial Investor

In Matthew 25 our Messiah YAHUAHSHUA portrays Himself as a businessman or investor who evaluates the asset management abilities of three servants or stewards, and then entrusts them with varying amounts of investment capital to manage while He is absent on a lengthy journey to a far country.

Upon his return, the lord summons the three servants to give an accounting of their capital management efforts. Two of the servants had worked diligently, doubled the resources they were given, and were well rewarded with greatly increased responsibilities and privileges. The third servant, who had received the smallest amount of investment capital to manage, had taken a completely different approach to the situation, which he described this way: “Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed: and I was AFRAID, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.” (Matthew 25:24,25)

Before we review his lord’s response, let’s think for a minute about what the third servant did, and why. By his own admission, his management plan was based on FEAR. In consequence, he furtively hid the money he was given to manage in the earth, and when his lord returned he dug it up and gave it back to him in perfect condition. We will now return to the Scripture narrative to see if this servant’s performance received his lord’s approval: “His lord answered, and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed. Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury. Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath ten talents. For unto everyone that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” (Matthew 25:26-30)

Aside from observing that this parable will never be the favourite parable of satanic socialist liberal communist globalists, there are several important things we can learn from it that I would like to note here:

-Individuals who withhold their best efforts because they fear the trials and risks of life are unacceptable to our Messiah, do not reflect or reproduce His image, and will be burned up in the Lake of Fire and Brimstone at the end of the age as noted in Matthew 25:41 and Revelation 21:8.

-The lord expected a return from his servants that was proportional to the investment capital he gave to them, and he amply rewarded those who used their best efforts to give him that return. Relating this observation to the subject of our study, “Be fruitful and multiply” (Genesis 1:28) is the first of more than 600 commandments in the Torah, and Jewish Torah scholars say that our Creators made it the first one for a reason .... because if this commandment is not complied with, nothing else in life works out ... and if it is complied with, everything else in life works out in due course of time, and our Creators flow Their blessings into the lives of all who cooperate with Them. On a related side note, pension money doesn't take care of seniors; working children who supply the money for pensions are what take care of seniors .... and if those working children aren't there, the pensions of senior FAKE MEN and FAKE WOMEN will become FAKE PENSIONS, far too small to sustain life!

-When the third servant accused his lord of being a hard man who demanded a harvest from servants he had not given seed to sow, he was breaking the ninth commandment which forbids bearing false witness against your neighbour, because the master had given him his allotted share of investment capital, which the servant himself acknowledged by giving back to him the capital he had received. From this parable we should understand that our Messiah DEFINITELY plans to reap or receive an increase where He does sow! And likewise, a man functioning in the image of Elohim will be planning and hoping and expecting to reap where he sows .... and if a harvest is not desired or cannot be coped with at a certain point in time, he should refrain from sowing.

-The greatest and most valuable asset our Creator and Heavenly Master gives to all men is their seed, and in the parable we are discussing He very clearly indicates what He wants in return for this gift; He wants an increase of the single thing of interest to the One Who already owns everything, all the silver and gold, the cattle on a thousand hills, even the world itself .... He wants an increase in free-willed intelligent beings who are raised and instructed in such a way that they freely choose to love and obey Him! This critical conclusion is confirmed in the passage from Malachi 2 quoted earlier and again below, where YAHUAH declares that He makes husband and wife one for the express purpose of obtaining Godly seed or righteous children for Himself!

-After noticing that certain necessary tasks in life we can either do ourselves or pay others to do, and after noticing that on some occasions even penalties and fines have been avoided by discrete payments made to certain constables or officers of the court .... we might feel prompted to ask the question – would it be acceptable to our Heavenly Father if we avoided the aggravation and expense of children through the use of contraception or abortion, provided we increased our tithes and offerings (because we could work harder and longer at our jobs and make more money!) and/or we spent more time and effort at prayer, praise, and worship? Our Heavenly Father provides a very clear answer to this question in the following passages:

Malachi 2:13-17 (quoted earlier but needed again to answer the question we are now dealing with): “And this have ye done again, covering the altar of Yahuah with tears, with weeping, and crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because Yahuah hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a Godly seed (i.e. righteous children). Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. For YAHUAH, the Elohim of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith YAHUAH of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously. Ye have wearied YAHUAH with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of YAHUAH, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the Elohim of judgment?"

Isaiah 1:10-19: "Hear the word of YAHUAH, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our Elohim, ye people of Gomorrah. To what purpose is the multitude of sacrifices unto me? Saith YAHUAH: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts? Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and Sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Come now, and let us reason together, saith YAHUAH: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land."

As we can see from these passages, if the marriage covenant and return on YAHUAH's investment in you in the form of Godly or righteous children (i.e. faithfulness and fruitfulness) are not complied with, YAHUAH won't take your money with good will – He doesn't need it, and He doesn't want it! As noted earlier, silver, gold, and the cattle on a thousand hills are His, and He can make any amount more any time He desires to, so you must understand that giving money to His work and those who are doing it is not for His benefit whatsoever, it's ENTIRELY for your benefit, and if He does not receive your money with good will, He will not accept you as a partner with Him in His "business enterprise" of expanding the Kingdom of Heaven now, nor will He accept you as a citizen of His eternal Kingdom when the battles of this life and age are won and over.

Not only will He refuse to accept with good will the monetary donations of those who fail to honour their marriage faithfulness and fruitfulness obligations; He also makes clear in the passages above that neither will He accept the worship of those who have blood on their hands, and contraception, abortion, and all the rest of the items on the anti-life list given earlier in this study equal BLOOD ON THE HANDS as far as our Heavenly Father is concerned! Anyone who insists on practicing and/or defending the sorcery discussed in this study is literally wasting his time and wearying YAHUAH with solemn assemblies, Shabbat worship, moedim/festival observance, and even with his prayers! As the wise king Solomon reminds us, if you don't listen to the instruction and teaching YAHUAH gives you, even your prayers will be an abomination (Proverbs 28:9), or put another way, if you don't listen to what He says to you, He won't listen to what you say to Him, which leaves you in a very bad place. We need to realize that our Heavenly Father's judgements are always tailored to exactly fit the crime or sin He is dealing with, which in this case is murder. If you murder a human being, who is made in the image of Elohim and was created to serve Elohim, you are left with a lifeless corpse that cannot provide any service or answer any requests. In response to your actions, YAHUAH "hides His face" from you to use the language of Scripture, or in the context of our discussion, He responds to you as though He was a dead corpse, i.e. He gives you no answer or response at all! King David sensed this was happening to him after he had Uriah murdered, which is why he prayed in his prayer of repentance, which is the only prayer our Heavenly Father will listen to after murder is committed, “Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy holy spirit from me.” (Psalm 51:11) If you have felt that your prayers are not heard or answered, you may have just learned the reason why; if you are walking in disobedience to Torah instruction regarding the issues we are discussing in this study, YAHUAH will not hear or answer your prayers until you repent and change your ways.

As An Agribusiness Investor

Not only does our Messiah liken Himself to a financial investor looking for an increase in the monetary assets he leaves in the hands of various stewards, but He also likens Himself to an agribusiness investor, specifically, a shepherd. ((Psalm 100:3, John 10) The business of shepherding requires the shepherd to invest time, money, and energy in the care of his sheep, and to risk physical harm or even death defending them from attacks by lions, bears, and wolves (I Samuel 17:34,35; John 10:11,12), all with the objective of obtaining an increase of his flock, which, along with the wool that he sheared, would constitute his income. (Genesis 30)

With the foregoing points in mind, please consider the following hypothetical scenario. One day a shepherd, tired from his constant efforts to lead his flock to good pasture and protect them from dangerous predators, notices a couple of rams getting it on sexually between themselves, and paying no attention to the ewes or female sheep. How do you think that shepherd would feel, and what do you think he would do? He would be absolutely disgusted that these rams, who owed their very existence to his efforts, investment, and exposure to danger, were behaving in a way that constituted refusal to give him a return on his investment, and he would immediately slaughter those rams so that at least he could get something for their meat and wool, and so that their behaviour would not spread to the rest of the rams in his flock!

This hypothetical scenario is the actual scenario experienced by our Good Shepherd when confronted by Sodomite “sheep” in His pasture! Men and women that He has been sustaining and nurturing for their entire lives, whose very breath is provided by Him and is in His hands, and whose very lives He paid for through the sacrifice of His own life on Calvary .... literally steal themselves (and all the children they were to have brought forth) from their Good Shepherd, Who has been raising them up to be good husbands and fathers and wives and mothers, and launch themselves into a career full of the unfruitful works of darkness! (Ephesians 5:11) As Wisdom, the Personification of Torah truth and the Holy Spirit of our Messiah, put it, all those who hate Her love death (Proverbs 8:36), and all those sheep in the Good Shepherd’s vast pasture who express their hatred for their Shepherd by pursuing same sex “alternative” lifestyles, truly do love and affirm death rather than life, and will shortly receive the ultimate version of their hearts’ desire when they hear the Master say “I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity (or lawlessness or Torahlessness).” (Matthew 7:23)

In Summary

Both our Messiah Yahuahshua, Who comes that we might have life, and have it more abundantly (John 10:10), and our adversary ha satan are 100% bottom line oriented

“businessmen.” This is why our Messiah has nothing to do with and will not tolerate anything on the anti-life list given earlier, and why our adversary, who comes to murder, lie, steal, and destroy, couldn’t care less which one of the items on the anti-life list you choose, as long as you use and shape your thinking to accept any one of them, because the bottom line of each is the same – NO LIFE! If you were an investor, would you invest your money in a company with a CEO who minimized expenses and ran an efficient, focused operation so that he always had enough money at the end of the year to give his investors a good return on their investment .... or in a company that used all their profit on employee parties and a fancy head office, leaving no payout for the investors? It’s a no brainer .... the answer is obvious! And the take home lesson of this discussion is also obvious; give the Chief CEO “Businessman” “Investor” “Good Shepherd” of the Universe a generous return on His investment (in you!), and He will bless you, and keep you, He’ll make His face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; He’ll lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace. (Numbers 6:24-26)

After discussing the responsibility husbands and wives have to bring forth, nurture, and train up children, let us look next at the responsibility children have to honour their parents, and how it is that many children today are abdicating their responsibility.

Honour Your Father And Your Mother vs. Sodomy, Abortion, And Contraception

Right in the heart of our Heavenly Father's 10 Words or Commandments is the instruction to honour your father and your mother. This commandment and the implications and ramifications that flow out from it regarding relationship to properly constituted governmental* and spiritual leadership are understood by Torah scholars to be of such critical importance that entire books are written dealing with it. They teach that all honour due to our earthly parents is doubly due to our Heavenly Parents, which is why Jews insist that the 5th commandment be included with the first 4 as part of the package of instructions which tell us how we should relate to our Creators. It is given along with a promise of long life in the Land which Yahuah was about to give them, specifically the Land of Israel, and the understanding that compliance with this commandment is directly connected to long life on the land your family lives on will explain many of the otherwise mysterious twists and turns of history. As King Solomon, the wisest man who ever lived, reminds us, "The curse causeless shall not come" (Proverbs 26:2), and violation of this commandment proves to be a particularly prolific cause of curses, as we are about to discover.

(*VERY IMPORTANT CLARIFICATION: properly constituted governmental leadership is defined in Scripture as leadership which is a terror to evildoers, and which executes the vengeance and wrath of Elohim on those who do evil. [Romans 13:3] Socialist or communist governments do not qualify for honour under the provisions of this commandment. They are literally built on a foundation of institutionalized and legitimized violation of all 10 commandments, but particularly the 10th, 8th, 9th, and 6th, and they specialize in terrorizing the righteous. Search the internet for "american thinker the democratic 10 commandments" to read an excellent article explaining this in detail. As the wise king Solomon reminded us, "For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof" [Proverbs 28:2], and because socialist or communist governments are literally built on a foundation of transgression of YAHUAH's holy Torah, they do indeed have many princes, i.e. BIG SIN = BIG GOVERNMENT! With big government come big taxes to pay for it, making it yet more difficult for a righteous man to pay the bills for a family through his own labour, thus making it necessary for his wife to work outside the home to make ends meet, thus making it extremely difficult for that man to have several children and properly raise them up. Clearly this vicious situation has been engineered by socialist or communist social engineers for the express purpose of destroying the Biblical family model and specifically the exercise of male sovereignty over the affairs of a household, and those responsible deserve NONE of the honour due to properly constituted government.)

Many things are understood to be a part of honouring parents, including keeping in touch with them, expressing your appreciation for their role in giving you life and taking care of you before you could take care of yourself, and returning the favour by taking care of them in their old age if or when they are not able to take care of themselves. As appropriate and good as these expressions of honour are, however, there is yet something else that constitutes the most authentic and genuine giving of honour, and when we see what it is and why it's at the very top of the "honour roll," so to speak, we'll also be able to better understand our Heavenly Father's attitude toward many things He declared in His holy Torah to be unacceptable or abominable.

There is an old saying or proverb which informs us that "Imitation is the sincerest flattery." Even though the word "flattery" has a generally negative connotation, this proverb is still able to communicate useful insight .... but if you replace "flattery" with "honour" as in "Imitation is the sincerest giving of honour" the insight imparted becomes absolutely inspired. As any father and mother will testify, the most honour-giving thing any son or daughter can do is to get married and bring forth children trained up in harmony with Scripture principles. And, needless to say, the most dishonouring thing any son or daughter can do is to live a sexually active lifestyle that does not bring forth any children. The list of such lifestyles regrettably contains a number of options which are common and popular in our day, including:

- the unmarried playboy or playgirl contracepted or sterilized lifestyle
- the married and contracepted or sterilized lifestyle
- the bestiality lifestyle, and finally, the arguably worst one of them all, the -Sodomite or "homosexual" or "lesbian" lifestyle, which literally makes you guilty of stealing yourself from your Good Shepherd, Who has invested much and literally laid down His life in order to raise you up to be a faithful husband or wife for another one of His children. If you want to provoke your Messiah to wrath, this lifestyle option will most certainly do it, and you will receive from Him your just reward, which is eternal damnation!

Sadly, this list of lifestyle options summarizes much of what goes on in the so-called "normal" society of our day, and when the inherent evil of each of these options is acknowledged and understood, it becomes obvious why everything in our societies is disintegrating and collapsing into chaos. It also becomes clear that unless and until all of these options are not only identified as evil but are dealt with as evil and eliminated, it will not be possible to return to a state of blessing, prosperity, and true "greatness."

The Jesuit Connection, Including An Important Message For Seventh-day Adventists

In order to understand what has brought about the horrific anti-life apostasy we see around us today with its resultant moral anarchy, family breakdown, and social chaos, we need to realize that although wicked politicians, lawyers, judges, and doctors have all played supporting roles, the lead role has been played by an effeminate, bearded, compromised, corrupt, sold out, and infiltrated “Christian” ministry. Instead of preaching the pure, unadulterated truth about marriage and sexuality which you have received in this study, they have preached what their dues-paying members have wanted to hear, or what the ministerial overlords who sign their paycheques ordered them to preach.

You may have noticed that I described the decadent ministry which is at the very root and foundation of this apostasy, as “infiltrated,” and you may have wondered who is doing the infiltration and what goal the infiltrators have in mind. In order to explain this situation, I’d like to relate to you some personal history. Back in the 1970’s I studied medicine at Loma Linda University in California, the well-known premiere medical school of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. During my senior year in medical school I noticed some things involving drug therapy for mental “illness” and contradiction of historical Seventh-day Adventist teaching on various moral issues that made me very concerned, and I voiced my concerns to several staff members and fellow students. This led to my expulsion from the University (or, as I like to describe it, my abortion from my alma mater, or “academic mother”) in the fall of 1977, and the beginning of a 40 year search to discover what was really going on in modern medicine and religion.

Soon after my expulsion Dr. Robert Mendelsohn published his ground-breaking book “Confessions of a Medical Heretic,” a brilliant exposé of evil in the allopathic medical profession which you must read if you have not done so already. The Natural Hygiene Society here in Toronto also provided me with some extremely useful perspectives and background information, and helped me fill in some blank spots in my understanding of how we as a society had arrived at our present status quo. Both of these sources of information positively confirmed that there was something, or actually many things, fundamentally out of order and just plain wrong, in modern allopathic medicine.

The next source of critically important information and perspective appeared in a completely unexpected format, a “comic book” style booklet (available from Chick Publications) containing the life story of ex-Jesuit priest Alberto Rivera. He claimed that the Jesuit Order of the Roman Catholic Church had infiltrated virtually all Protestant churches and nominally Protestant countries with intent to destroy, and that the Seventh-day Adventist Church was amongst the first and most heavily infiltrated! This revelation was a shocker, and the Ruach ha Kodesh or Holy Spirit impressed me strongly at the time that what Alberto Rivera exposed was in some way related to my experience at Loma Linda University, although I did not yet know how it was related.

Pastor Jan Marcussen, publisher and coordinator of an independent Seventh-day Adventist ministry, read Alberto Rivera’s story and determined to learn everything he could about the Jesuit infiltration of Seventh-day Adventism. He contacted Alberto Rivera and arranged a personal interview with him which I obtained and viewed in video format. During this interview Pastor Marcussen asked Alberto Rivera to outline specifically where the Jesuit Order was active in Seventh-day Adventism, and Alberto explained that they were infiltrated into and active within the church's ministerial work, educational work, and MEDICAL WORK FROM TOP TO BOTTOM, HOSPITALS AND CLINICS! At this point I realized that I had been very close to something extremely dark, sinister, and dangerous, and that a satanic spirit within that "medical" operation had identified me as a threat that must be gotten rid of! I was now able to connect many more dots, but there were still some dots I was unable to connect until I obtained another critically important perspective from another unlikely source.

While acquiring resources needed to research more deeply what I had already learned, I obtained material from the Canadian Protestant League which contained a vital insight that turned out to be exactly what I needed to connect the final dots. In one of their publications they explained that, very counter-intuitively, Jesuit operatives worked in Protestant communions and nominally Protestant countries to counteract and nullify all traditional Biblical principles of morality (such as those taught in this study), knowing that if members in these communions and countries could be induced to live in immoral ways and to approve immoral lifestyles, Heaven's protection would be removed and these communions and countries would disintegrate as effective voices against Rome and indeed as cohesive communions or countries of any kind. This concept and modus operandi is the essence of the Doctrine of Balaam mentioned in Revelation 2:14, and I will have more to say about this doctrine shortly.

So, what is traditional Biblical morality, and how could it be counteracted and nullified? We might define "traditional Biblical morality" as a man and a woman marrying till death parts them one from another, establishing a home with the husband and father as the provider, protector, and priest or spiritual leader, with his wife at his side to help him carry out his plans and dreams, sexually relating with his wife to bring forth children, and training up those children to fear and obey their Heavenly Father and the entire Divine Family.

Actions to sabotage, counteract, and nullify traditional Biblical morality in the church and in the broader society beyond the church in nominally Protestant countries would include:

-Acceptance, promotion, and provision of anti-life tools and practices such as contraception, abortion, and sterilization, all functionally and spiritually equivalent in the eyes of our Creators, and all constituting murder. Studies have shown that if no contraception is used, 4% of marriages break apart .... and if contraception is used, 50% of marriages break apart .... and approximately 50% of Seventh-day Adventist marriages break apart! Someone, and we now know who, bears an awful responsibility for what has gone on in the Seventh-day Adventist Church! Through their satanic deceptive machinations they have turned contraceptive using households into haunted houses, and they have turned every contraceptive using woman's womb into a witch's spirit cooking cauldron as mentioned earlier .... and in due course of time they will receive what everyone who sells their soul to the devil for temporal gain receives, eternal damnation!

-Attacking the role of the husband and father as the head of his home, wife, and family, and the role of his wife as his helpmeet to assist him in carrying out his plans and dreams. This attack is carried on in many ways, including mocking and ridiculing fathers and men in general as depicted in media programming and advertising, promoting feminism or “emancipation” and declaring an illusory “equality” between men and women, encouraging women to think and act contrary to their father’s or husband’s wishes or directions, and extending the right to vote to women, which gives women de facto at least equal right as men in determining the leadership of a country. To fully understand what is happening here, it is essential to realize that satanic globalism aims to establish one point of sovereignty or control over the entire globe. While we generally think of globalism as focused on the destruction of the sovereignty of nations, and while that has been one goal of our adversary for thousands of years as confirmed in the inspired words of Scripture: “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst WEAKEN THE NATIONS!” (Isaiah 14:12), in order to achieve the ultimate objective of the globalists, every manifestation of sovereignty other than their own must also be destroyed or rendered impotent, including religious denominational or sect sovereignty, and first and foremost, the most basic manifestation of sovereignty on the planet, a man’s sovereign control over his wife and children. (see Genesis 18:19) Unless and until this primal sovereignty can be eliminated, globalism cannot succeed! And make no mistake about it – not only do all forms of abortion and contraception constitute murder of children, but they also constitute murder of the father involved in the sexual relationship, because those children are the continuation of the father into the next generation, and thus also constitute the manifestation of the father’s sovereignty in the next generation, something the satanic globalists HATE and desperately want to stop, which explains their involvement with every phase of the anti-life business. Not only are these satanic globalists and all who cooperate with them guilty of the murder of a man and his children, however; they in fact make themselves guilty of the most grievous and heinous murder in human history, the murder of our Messiah YAHUAHSHUA Himself, Who declared as mentioned earlier that if you do something to the least of His brethren, you do it to Him! (Matthew 25:40)

-Acceptance and promotion of no-fault divorce and remarriage.

-Production and distribution of pornography.

-Acceptance, promotion, and provision of “anti-anxiety” medication or sorcery (translated in Scripture from the Greek word pharmakeia, from which we get our modern word pharmacy) to deaden the terrible emotional and spiritual pain and guilt caused by one or more of the practices listed above. In conjunction with both the pornography and pharmaceutical businesses, Alberto Rivera stated that although they may appear to be run primarily by ethnically Jewish individuals, the controlling power behind both of these “businesses” is the Jesuit Order!

-Provision of deceptive, unbiblical “counselling” to those who lose their marriages, their health, and their sanity as a result of one or more of the practices listed above.

-“Tolerance,” acceptance, and promotion of Sodomites (aka “homosexuals”) within church fellowship and within broader civil society.

With final dots connected, we are now able to see the reality of what is going on in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Its ministerial and medical establishments are not working to sustain and grow the Church, but rather are working to weaken, demoralize, devour and destroy the real Seventh-day Adventist Church, consisting of honest souls who are endeavouring to live according to Scripture principles. President Donald Trump's presidential campaign and now presidency have brought into clear view the existence of a previously hidden deep state or dark state or shadow government which has been working for decades to weaken and destroy the real USA, the actual sovereign people of the United States of America, and what we can now see is that the ministerial and medical establishments of Seventh-day Adventism are the precise ecclesiastical counterpart of the deep state or dark state or shadow government in the USA, and that in fact both are controlled by exactly the same entity, the Jesuit Order of the Roman Catholic Church! The men who run these systems are modern day equivalents of the men our Messiah described as "whited sepulchres .... full of dead men's bones" who outwardly appear righteous to men, but in fact are full of hypocrisy, extortion, and sinfulness on the inside (Matthew 23:25-28), and to them rightly belongs every "Woe" that ever came out of our Messiah's mouth directed at the scribes and Pharisees of His day! Any ministerial, medical, legal, political, or commercial operation that approves, teaches, supplies, or ignores and does not warn about contraception, abortion, sterilization or any other of the aforementioned abominations is in reality practicing SORCERY, and will be ground to powder and blown away when the rock cut out of the mountain without hands strikes it! (Daniel 2)

The Doctrine of Balaam

The experience of the prophet and evil genius Balaam with the Children of Israel at the border of the Promised Land is particularly insightful with reference to the subject we are studying. The story is originally told in Numbers 22-25, and is referenced in Revelation 2 as the Doctrine of Balaam, an obviously malign scheme of some sort which caused many in Israel to eat things offered to idols and to participate in fornication. It is important to note that, not coincidentally, the Doctrine of Balaam was being implemented at Pergamos, which our Messiah identified as being the very seat of satan. (Revelation 2:13) As we are about to learn, the Doctrine of Balaam is core doctrine of our adversary, and in fact is implemented immediately wherever and whenever he is able to establish a seat!

Although the Scripture account is useful to obtain a general idea of what went on with Balaam and his wicked plot, it is essentially the Cole's Notes version of this extremely important incident. To get the rest of the critical details we need to understand the actual mechanics or modus operandi of the Doctrine of Balaam, we must go to Flavius Josephus' classic work "Antiquities of the Jews." We will join the narrative in Book 4, Chapter 6, just after the mighty frustrated prophet /mercenary Balaam has concluded his futile efforts to curse the children of Israel:

"6. ...Balak being very angry that the Israelites were not cursed, sent away Balaam without thinking him worthy of any honour. Whereupon, when he was just upon his journey, in order to pass the Euphrates, he sent for Balak, and for the princes of the Midianites, and spake thus unto them: - "O Balak, and you Midianites that are here present (for I am obliged even without the will of God to gratify you,) it is true no entire destruction can seize upon the nation of the Hebrews, neither by war, nor by plague, nor by scarcity of the fruits of the earth, nor can any other unexpected accident be their entire ruin; for the providence of God is concerned to preserve them from such a misfortune, nor will it permit any such calamity to come upon them whereby they may all perish; but some small misfortunes, and those for a short time, whereby they may appear to be brought low, may still befall them; but after that they will flourish again, to the terror of those that brought those mischiefs upon them. So that if you have a mind to gain a victory over them for a short space of time you will obtain it by following my directions: - do you therefore set out the handsomest of such of your daughters as are most eminent for beauty, and proper to force and conquer the modesty of those that behold them, and these decked and trimmed to the highest degree you are able. Then do you send them to be near the Israelites' camp, and give them in charge that when the young men of the Hebrews desire their company, they allow it them; and when they see that they are enamored of them, let them take their leaves; and if they entreat them to stay, let them not give their consent till they have persuaded them to leave off their obedience to their own laws and the worship of that God who established them and to worship the gods of the Midianites and Moabites; for by this means, God will be angry at them." Accordingly, when Balaam had suggested this counsel to them, he went his way. 7. So when the Midianites had sent their daughters as Balaam had exhorted them, the Hebrew young men were allured by their beauty, and came to discourse with them, and besought them not to grudge them with the enjoyment of their beauty, nor to deny them their conversation. These daughters of the Midianites received their words gladly, and consented to it and stayed with them: but when they had brought them to be enamored of them, and their inclinations to them were grown to ripeness, they began to think of departing from them: then it was that these men became greatly disconsolate at the women's departure, and they were urgent with them not to leave them, but begged they would continue there, and become their wives; and they promised them they should be owned as mistresses of all they had. This they said with an oath, and called God to be arbitrator of what they promised; and this with tears in their eyes, and all other such marks of concern, as might show how miserable they thought themselves without them, and so might move their compassion for them. So the women, as soon as they perceived they had made them their slaves, and had caught them with their conversation, began to speak thus to them:- 8. "O you illustrious young men! We have houses of our own at home, and great plenty of good things there, together with the natural affectionate love of our parents and friends; not is it out of our want of any such things that we came to discourse with you: nor did we admit of your invitation with design to prostitute the beauty of our bodies for gain; but taking you for brave and worthy men, we agreed to your request, that we might treat you with such honours as hospitality required: and now seeing you say that you have a great affection for us, and you are troubled when you think we are departing, we are not averse to your entreaties; and if we may receive such assurance of your good-will as we think can alone be sufficient, we will be glad to lead our lives with you as your wives: but we are afraid that you will in time be weary of our company, and will then abuse us, and send us back to our parents, after an ignominious manner." And they desired that they would excuse them in their guarding against that danger. But the young men professed they would give them any assurance they should desire; nor did they at all contradict what they requested, so great was the passion they had for them. "If then," said they, "this be your resolution; since you make use of such customs and conduct of life as are entirely different from ail other men, insomuch that your kinds of food are peculiar to yourselves, and your kinds of drink not common to others, it will be absolutely necessary, if you would have us for your wives, that you do withal worship our gods; nor can there be any other demonstration of the kindness which you say you already have, and promise to have hereafter to us, than this, that you worship the same gods that we do. For has any one reason to complain, that now you are come into this country, you should worship the proper gods of the same country? Especially while our gods are common to all men, and yours such as belong to nobody else but yourselves." So they said they must either come into such methods of divine worship as all others came into, or else they must look out for another world, wherein they may live by themselves, according to their own laws. 9. Now the young men were induced by the fondness they had for these women, to think they spake very well; so they gave themselves up to what they persuaded them, and transgressed their own laws; and supposing there were many gods, and resolving that they would sacrifice to them according to the laws of that country which ordained them, they both were delighted with their strange food, and went on to do everything that the women would have them do, though in contradiction to their own laws; so far, indeed, that this transgression was already gone through the whole army of the young men, and they fell into a sedition that was much worse than the former, and into danger of the entire abolition of their own institutions; for when once the youth had tasted of these strange customs, they went with insatiable inclinations into them; and even where some of the principal men were illustrious on account of the virtues of their fathers, they also were corrupted together with the rest. 10. Even Zimri, the head of the tribe of Simeon, accompanied with Cozbi, a Midianitish woman, who was the daughter of Sur. a man of authority in that country; and being desired by her to disregard the laws of Moses, and to follow those she was used to, he complied with her; and this both by sacrificing after a manner different from his own, and by taking a stranger to wife. When things were thus, Moses was afraid that matters should grow worse, and called the people to a congregation, but then accused nobody by name, as unwilling to drive those into despair, who, by lying concealed, might come to repentance; but he said that they did not do what was either worthy of themselves, or of their fathers, by preferring pleasure to God, and to the living according to his will; that it was fit that they should change their courses while their affairs were still in a good state: and think that to be true fortitude which offers not violence to their laws, but that which resists their lusts. And besides that, he said it was not a reasonable thing, when they had lived soberly in the wilderness, to act madly now when they were in prosperity; and that they ought not to lose, now they have abundance, what they had gained when they had little - and so he did endeavour, by saying this to correct the young men, and to bring them to repentance for what they had done. 11. But Zimri arose up after him, and said, "Yes, indeed, Moses, thou art at liberty to make use of such LAWS as thou art so fond of, and hast by accustoming thyself to them, made them firm; otherwise, if things had not been thus, thou hadst often been punished before now, and hadst known that the Hebrews are not easily put upon; but thou shalt not have me one of thy followers in thy tyrannical commands, for thou dost nothing else hitherto, but, under pretence of laws, and of God, wickedly impose on us slavery, and gain dominion to thyself, while thou deprivest us of sweetness of life, which consists in acting according to our own wills, and is the right of free men, and of those that have no lord over them. Nay, indeed, this man is harder upon the Hebrews than were the Egyptians themselves, as pretending to punish, according to his laws, every one's acting what is most agreeable to himself; but thou thyself better deserves to suffer punishment, who presumes to abolish

what every one acknowledges to be what is good for him, and aimest to make thy single opinion to have more force than that of all the rest: and what I now do, and think to be right, I shall not hereafter deny to be according to my own sentiments. I have married, as thou sayest rightly, a strange woman, and thou hearest what I do from myself as from one that is free: for truly I did not intend to conceal myself. I also own that I sacrificed to those gods to whom you did not think it fit to sacrifice; and I think it right to come at truth by inquiring of many people, and not like one that lives under tyranny, to suffer the whole hope of my life to depend upon one man; nor shall any one find cause to rejoice who declares himself to have more authority over my actions than myself." 12. Now when Zimri had said these things, about what he and some others had wickedly done, the people held their peace, both out of fear of what might come upon them, and because they saw that their legislator was not willing to bring his insolence before the public any further, or openly to contend with him; for he avoided that, lest many should imitate the impudence of his language, and thereby disturb the multitude. Upon this the assembly was dissolved. However, the mischievous attempt had proceeded further, if Zimri had not been first slain, which came to pass on the following occasion:- Phineas, a man in other respects better than the rest of the young men, and also one that surpassed his contemporaries in the dignity of his father, (for he was the son of Eleazar the high priest and the grandson of [Aaron] Moses's brother,) who was greatly troubled at what was done by Zimri, he resolved in earnest to inflict punishment on him, before his unworthy behaviour should grow stronger by impunity, and in order to prevent this transgression from proceeding further, which would happen if the ringleaders were not punished. He was of so great magnanimity, both in strength of mind and body, that when he undertook any very dangerous attempt, he did not leave it off till he overcame it, and got an entire victory. So he came into Zimri's tent, and slew him with his javelin, and with it he slew Cozbi also. Upon which, all those young men that had a regard to virtue, and aimed to do a glorious action, imitated Phineas's boldness, and slew those that were found to be guilty of the same crime with Zimri. Accordingly, many of those that had transgressed, perished by the magnanimous valour of these young men, and the rest all perished by a plague, which distemper God himself inflicted upon them. So that all those their kindred, who instead of hindering them from such wicked actions, as they ought to have done, had persuaded them to go on, were esteemed by God as partners in their wickedness, and died." (end of Josephus reference)

In summary, the nubile, scantily-clad young ladies of Midian hung out with the young men of Israel until a strong bond had been created, after which the young ladies said it was time for them to move along and return home. At this point the young men broke down in tears and begged the young ladies to remain with them and become their wives. This the young ladies agreed to do, but on one non-negotiable condition – that the young men eat the food, drink the drinks, and worship the gods that they were used to in their country. This condition the young men quickly accepted, and then proved the sincerity of their verbal acceptance by immediately participating in the aforementioned .... and the rest of the story is history.

With the benefit of this more detailed account, we can see that what happened here was a close parallel to what happened in the Garden of Eden after Chavah or Eve ate the fruit of the forbidden tree. Balaam and the elders of Midian played the part of the adversary, the young ladies played the part of Chavah, and the young men played the part of Adam. In both cases the bait was the companionship of and intimacy with lovely ladies, and the deadly hook was the need to sell out spiritual principles and disobey a “Thus saith YAHUAH” in order to maintain this companionship and intimacy. In order to devise this scheme, Balaam clearly had to sell his soul to the devil who had cooked it up in the first place, and in both cases it worked like a charm .... and, needless to say, it still works like a charm today. Let me explain.

As fashioned according to his Creators’ wisdom, a man comes pre-loaded with an intense, passionate desire for spiritual, mental, and physical (not necessarily in that order) companionship and intimacy with a woman. And again, according to his Creators’ wisdom, it is not good if that passionate desire is not satisfied; in the language of Scripture, it is not good that a man should be alone. (Genesis 2:18) However, standing between a man’s passionate desire and its satisfaction may be one or more of a number of things:

- The recommendation or requirement to accept pre-marital “counselling” before a marriage is consented to.
- The consent of a woman’s parents.
- The consent of the woman herself.
- The consent of a match maker.
- The approval of a woman’s friends.
- The explicit or implied “advice” or “counsel” on marriage emanating from print and electronic media, most of it controlled by the deep state or dark state or shadow government, i.e. controlled by the devil.

Before considering the role and effect of these entities, we should acknowledge something else a man fashioned according to his Creators’ wisdom comes pre-loaded with, and that is an intense, passionate desire that his wife should reverence and respect him personally, uphold his beliefs and values, and obey his instructions including both verbal and physical testimony (the physical testimony produced by his testis, the organ of his body whose name provides the root for the word “testimony”), and they are all intended to reproduce his image in his wife and through his wife in his children. Marriage vows used to routinely elicit from a wife her agreement or promise to obey her husband, properly reflecting her submissive role with reference to him, but regrettably most people now alive have never even heard marriage vows that include such an agreement, and if they were to hear them they would most likely laugh out loud at the patent foolishness of such vows, as they would perceive them, or they would recoil in horror at the thought of such a terrible, onerous yoke being placed on a poor woman.

I’ve taken you on the preceding short walk down memory lane to provide context for the following discussion. Each of the entities mentioned previously can play a positive, or too frequently a negative, role in the formation of a male/female union. If they withhold consent for a union until a man understands and accepts his Scripturally defined duties and privileges as husband and father, then their influence has been used in a constructive, legitimate way. If, however, they withhold consent for a union until a man agrees that:

- His wife need not accept or act according to his convictions and directions, and/or

-His children need not be educated according to his convictions, something which is accomplished, for example, by the Roman Catholic “Reversalis” document. This document is presented by a Catholic priest to a Protestant or other non-Catholic man who would like to marry a Catholic woman, and the man’s signature on the document affirms his consent for all his children to be raised up as Catholics. The priest explains to the man that his agreement with the terms of the document is a requirement to obtain the Catholic Church’s blessing on and approval of his marriage, and the minute he signs it he abdicates his position as spiritual leader and head of his household. He gets his wife’s body, the Roman Catholic Church gets her mind and soul, and he becomes in effect the indentured slave of the Roman Catholic Church, tasked with raising up and paying for the next generation of Roman Catholics.

-His physical “testimony” (i.e. his seed) need not be allowed to grow within his wife, i.e. his wife can use contraception or any other anti-life tools to avoid having children. If he accepts this stipulation, he defiles the image of his Creators which They have entrusted him with, and repudiates his responsibility to give them a proper return on their investment in him and his wife.

In each of these scenarios, the influence of the entities above becomes application of the Doctrine of Balaam – the withholding of the woman from the man until, or the threatened loss of female companionship and intimacy unless, the man sells out his kingly divine prerogatives and in effect grovels in front of the devil and agrees to accept the devil’s conditions in order to satisfy his passion. Sad to say, this “way that seems right unto a man” in the heat of the moment of his keen desire, always ends up the same way, in death and destruction. (see Proverbs 14:12)

Every man dealing with this situation needs to remember and thoroughly understand as noted earlier that Adam’s real problem at the beginning in the Garden of Eden was not eating forbidden fruit, as bad and as awful and as sinful as that was. Rather, eating the forbidden fruit was the RESULT of his real problem, which our Creators accurately described as listening to his wife and doing what she asked him to do instead of what his Creators told him to do, or in this case not do. (Genesis 3:17) Whenever or however this type of situation develops, every true man of Elohim will insist on listening to and obeying the instructions coming from his Head, the Messiah (I Corinthians 11:3), rather than from any female messaging no matter how attractively packaged. He must be willing to alienate and/or lose that female companionship and intimacy if he wants his situation in the end to turn out differently and better than things turned out for Adam and for the young men seduced by the undoubtedly very exciting young ladies of Midian and Moab.

Viewed from another complementary perspective, idolatry is the worship by man of something created by man, often historically from substances such as wood, metal, or stone. None of these worshipped objects, however, were the original creation by or of man. The original creation by or of man would in fact be woman (the words “woman” and “female” literally mean “of man” and “of male”), and when this is understood, it is easy to see that if a man listens to his wife, and follows her instruction to do something contrary to his Creators’ instruction, that man has committed rank idolatry and has violated both the 2nd and 1st precepts of the Decalogue, which forbid idolatry and having any gods or Elohim or mighty ones or authorities other than Almighty YAHUAH, the only true Father or Authority over His entire creation!

This understanding or teaching is in NO way anti-woman; rather, it is totally pro-woman, because the blessing that exists in a woman's life is the result and consequence of the covering over her provided by a righteous man, be it her father, her suitor or fiancé, or her husband. If she does channel the adversary and prostitute her feminine pulchritude to distract a man from the call of duty as laid out by his Creators, and on to another path of rebellion against the instruction of his Creators, not only will he come under a curse, but SHE WILL COME UNDER A DOUBLE CURSE, and will suffer terribly herself for her course of action, just as Chavah suffered for what she did in the Garden at the beginning. So, any woman who knows what is good for herself should actively encourage and help the man in her life to connect with, listen to, and OBEY his divine Head!

As we can now see, the Doctrine of Balaam is not only alive and well in our day, but we are literally surrounded by those who are using that doctrine as the foundation of their fortunes and influence. Although the Apostle Peter spoke the following words 2,000 years ago, they were never more relevant than they are today: "Save yourselves from this untoward (warped, winding [twisted], perverse, crooked, froward – Strong's 4646) generation!" (Acts 2:40)

Torah guide To Safe Sex For Unmarried Men And Women, Including Discussion Regarding The Single State, Default/Baseline Sexual Function, And “Onanism”

Contrary to what you may have thought or been taught, our Heavenly Father is perfectly OK with sex between unmarried men and women, or to be more specific, sex between an unmarried man and an unmarried woman: as a matter of fact, this approach to sex has a major advantage over waiting for sex until after marriage, as will be explained later in this discussion.

If, however, you as a man should choose this option to launch your sex life, there are certain mandatory stipulations in the fine print that you must be aware of and adhere to: you must compensate your lady's father for all of his efforts to raise her to adulthood, and you must take her to be your wife, and you cannot put her away as long as you and she are alive. In His holy Torah our Heavenly Father put it this way: "If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found; then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days." (Deuteronomy 22:28,29) The final stipulation, forbidding the man from putting her away as long as he and she are alive, may not seem like a big deal to someone who has never been married and is experiencing ardent desire for the lady of his choice. If, however, he invested some time to track down and talk with men who had been married for decades to wives who don't respect their values, don't respect them personally, and aren't inclined to train their children up according to their directions, he would surely receive a wake up call on the extreme importance of choosing wisely the lady he is to be wed-locked to for the rest of his life without any possibility of putting her away, which is the situation he will find himself in if chooses the sex with an unmarried woman option.

So, what exactly should a man do to determine whether the lady he is dealing with is a wise choice to pursue for marriage, or in the context of our current discussion, to intensify his relationship with to include sexual activity? The recommended course of action in both scenarios is essentially the same, and should be accompanied in each case with prayer to our Heavenly Father for guidance and wisdom so that all decisions made and actions taken will be in harmony with His will.

In Israel in Biblical times, a man who decided he should pursue a lady to become his wife would prepare for her a written document called a ketubah, which would contain his plans for the future, his convictions, standards, and beliefs, and how he would carry out his home life and educate his children, along with a proposal for marriage provided the foregoing discussion met with her approval. The ketubah would be ceremoniously presented to the lady of his choice, who would then deliberate over its contents, counsel with her parents and others she trusted, and then decide to either accept or decline the man's proposal. This approach was fair to both parties, in that it allowed the man an opportunity to describe in detail his vision of what the home and family he wanted to establish would look like, and it allowed the lady as much time and space as she needed to decide whether she could fit into the vision her prospective husband had laid out. It should also be noted at this point that what happened in Israel with the ketubah was the polar opposite of what happened when, under Balaam's guidance as discussed previously, the young ladies of Midian presented the young men of Israel with THEIR terms and conditions of continued engagement and marriage.

In some fashion, through either a written or verbal discussion, the meeting of the minds which happened with the aid of the ketubah document in Israel absolutely needs to happen today before the (sexual) meeting of the bodies takes place. Since our Creators have ordained the man to be the head of his household, the responsibility of initiating this discussion falls on his shoulders, and discharging this responsibility properly becomes an essential element of the process which enables his vision for the future to become reality.

In order for this process to produce satisfactory results, it is also essential that he positions his mind and conscience as master over his flesh, and not vice versa, i.e. he must be willing to politely and graciously discontinue a relationship with any lady, no matter how attractive and open to his attention she may be, if she does not feel she can live with his vision of the future, or if she wants to "negotiate" around significant elements of his vision. He MUST be willing to thank her for her time and tell her he doesn't want to waste any of it by holding her back from pursuing a man she can live happily with. Needless to say, this outcome does not necessarily have to mean the permanent end of the relationship; she may reconsider her position and decide she can work with his vision .... but unless he is willing to walk away from the relationship unless his principles and beliefs are accepted, and even more importantly, that his role as the spiritual leader of his home is accepted, there will never be an end to the disputing that will take place in their household should they decide to join forces (and bodies) as they move into the future.

What we have discussed so far is just as important and useful to safeguard the interests of the woman as it is to safeguard the interests of the man, and ultimately the interests of their divine Creators who brought them both into existence. Any woman in her right mind should want to know what makes a man tick, what principles, beliefs, and plans animate him, before she gives him the green light to enter her life and her body. Please keep in mind that obtaining this knowledge is equally essential to the woman who chooses the sex between an unmarried man and an unmarried woman option as it is to the woman who chooses the sex after marriage option. Since our Creators have placed a non-negotiable obligation on any man who has sex with an unmarried woman to take that woman as his wife, with all that that entails, and not put her away as long as he (and she) lives, you as the woman in this picture really need to understand what you're getting into, and what's getting in to you, before your relationship is cast in concrete. Most importantly, you need to establish that your man knows his Creators and his duty to Them before you consent to finalize, on paper or in the flesh, your terms of engagement with him.

A Major Advantage Of The Sex Between An Unmarried Man And An Unmarried Woman Option

As mentioned at the beginning of this segment, the sex between an unmarried man and an unmarried woman option has a major advantage over the waiting for sex until after marriage option. In order to realize this advantage, however, both parties need to discuss and come to agreement on each of the following matters:

- The primacy of Torah/Scripture in setting the household standard for belief, behaviour, and worship.
- The permanence of the bond about to be formed, and recognition that the man cannot put away the woman as long as he lives.
- YAHUAH's reason for making a man and his wife one, in order to obtain for Himself righteous children. (Malachi 2:15)
- The clear understanding that if either or both parties feel that they cannot cope with more children for a time, they will "refrain from embracing" (i.e. from having sexual intercourse) until such time as they're ready to accept more children. Needless to say, refraining from intercourse need not preclude other forms of physical contact such as massaging. If one party needs more understanding about this, you might want to give him or her a copy of this study to facilitate their research.

As well, the man needs to have or know how he can speedily and steadily obtain the needed resources to provide accommodation, transportation, food, and whatever else his new and growing family will require.

Only after each of the items above have been dealt with and are in order, and they have asked for their Creators' blessing on the new home they are forming, should the man and the woman involved feel free to move forward into the sexual phase of their relationship. If one or more of the above items is not agreed to or in order, DO NOT proceed to the sexual phase until the situation is resolved satisfactorily. If it cannot be resolved satisfactorily, then WALK AWAY as noted earlier in the study, thanking the other party for their consideration and wishing him or her the best. Don't assume that it will be a quick, simple, or easy job to find someone willing to work within the guidelines noted above. You may have to get acquainted with several individuals before you find someone suitable. If a diligent search of your local area does not connect you with anyone willing to work with your proposal, broaden your search area. It's a big world out there, and your Creators may have someone prepared for you on the other side of it! You may want to drive the globalists crazy by developing an international family committed to walking in Torah and sharing with all who will listen that YAHUAH's revelation of truth in the Torah is present truth and duty for all regardless of nationality. Pray for guidance, search diligently, and if our Heavenly Father wills that a new home and family be developed, you will be led to the one you are looking for.

What, then, is the advantage of choosing the sex between an unmarried man and an unmarried woman option instead of the wait for sex until after marriage option? You may recall in our earlier discussion of the Doctrine of Balaam I included a list of entities or forces that endeavour to insinuate themselves into a couple's relationship from the moment they become a "thing" until they are married, and some of them also after marriage for that matter. However, the time of maximum leverage for and thus danger from these entities and forces is between engagement and marriage. It is during this time that a man faces in a very real way the risk of losing the object of his heart's desire unless he bends, concedes, abdicates, agrees, bows or changes in some way or ways that damage his interests and the interests of his Creators. Choosing the sex between an unmarried man and an unmarried woman option minimizes the risk that these entities and forces can derail your relationship before it becomes a "fait accompli" or a done deal, and that is the major advantage of working with this option.

However, I remind you again that YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED about the need to arrive at agreement regarding all the points covered earlier in this section .... and if agreement is not reached, DO NOT PROCEED! If you mess up at this point, you may make the rest of your earthly existence a mess AND you may jeopardize your prospects for eternal life. If you bypass arriving at agreement concerning all the points I noted earlier, and move on directly to the endgame (i.e. a consummated sexual union), you may if a man end up with a wife who does not respect you or your values and beliefs, or if a woman end up with a baby but no husband to look after and love you and your child.

Normal Baseline/Default Sexual Function, Tumah, “Original Sin,” and “Onanism”

Many spiritual writers and “prophets” have produced discussions on one or more of the topics mentioned in the title to this chapter, and the end result of their efforts has typically been a mixture of truth, misinformation, disinformation, and downright dangerous confusion and error. All deficiencies involved in understanding of these topics stem from one fundamental deficiency, and that is deficiency in knowledge of Torah, the owner’s manual provided by our Creators so we can live in such a way that we please and not offend Them, so let us take a look at these topics in light of what we can learn about them from Torah and the rest of Scripture.

Since a correct understanding of normal baseline/default sexual function provides the necessary foundation for understanding the rest of the topics covered in this chapter, let’s begin our investigation by reviewing this matter. Female baseline function involves a monthly period of fertility when the female egg is available to be joined by a male seed if it becomes available, forming a new one-celled child. If a male seed is not available, the egg is eliminated or flushed out along with menstrual blood in a process known as menstruation, after which the cycle repeats and another egg is prepared for fertilization or insemination. The elimination process of menstruation produces a state which is referred to in Hebrew as tumah, a word which has no equivalent in English but which is frequently and regrettably translated as ceremonial or ritual “uncleanness.” Hebrew scholars say that because tumah has no equivalent in English it should be left in Hebrew rather than translated, so that the reader will realize that a more detailed analysis of the word is necessary in order to understand its meaning. When that analysis is done, it is seen that rather than describing something dirty as we would think of when we encounter the word “uncleanness,” it actually stands for mortality and finitude, that which withers away, as contrasted with that which is everlasting and never deteriorates. Regulations for a woman who is in a state of tumah are found in Leviticus 15. At the conclusion of her period she is to go through a process of purification involving immersion in a mikvah, a natural body of water, because water is the clearest symbol of life, and is an appropriate spiritual antidote to tumah, which is described by some Hebrew scholars as “the whisper of death.” The state of tumah does not constitute sin, and a woman experiencing it should thank her Creators for the normal functioning of her body and soul temple, and for the opportunity which the faculties she has been endowed with provide to bring forth new life in the image of Elohim.

Male baseline function involves the internal production and storage of seed or semen, until such internal storage capacity is full and the seed is released and eliminated, either through involuntary and thus unpredictable and awkward to deal with nocturnal emission or voluntary emission through manual stimulation. This elimination process also creates a state of tumah, and how it should be dealt with is explained in Leviticus 15:16-18 and Deuteronomy 23:10,11. It does not constitute sin, and a man experiencing it should thank his Creators for the normal functioning of his body, and for the opportunity which the faculties he has been endowed with provide to bring forth new life in the image of Elohim, and to give his Creators a return on the investment they have made in him. If single, he may include in his prayer of thanksgiving a humble reminder that it's still not good for a man to be alone, as his Creators declared at the beginning, and he should pray for assistance in finding a woman pleasing to his Creators who would consent to become his wife, and to work with him in raising up a family to the honour and glory of Elohim.

At this point a brief discussion of the Catholic doctrine of "original sin" would be in order. This doctrine was developed by Catholic theologian "Saint" Augustine, who declared that every human being born since Adam has inherited sin from his parents, and thus will automatically go to hell unless that "original sin" is washed off by a baptism which is usually carried out on infants by sprinkling. He went on to declare that this inherited "original sin" manifested itself in the form of sexual desire, a teaching from the pit of hell that has created untold millions of guilt-racked souls over the centuries since it was first developed.

The faith of Israel contains no such doctrine as "original sin," and the Elohim of Israel categorically declares this doctrine to be false. "The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son." (Ezekiel 18:20 – read the entire chapter for much more detail) Sin is the transgression of the Torah or "Law" (I John 3:4), and nowhere in Torah is either the sexual urge or the elimination of seed when the male body's internal storage capacity is full, even remotely referred to as sin. Such a designation would actually be condemnation of our Creators and would falsely accuse them of poor workmanship, since They were the ones who created mankind male and female in the image of Elohim (Genesis 1:27), and Who declared Their entire creation to be very good. (Genesis 1:31) Totally contrary to Catholic theology and practice, in Israel the coming of age sexually of a young man at puberty (around 12-13 years old) is regarded as an occasion for great community rejoicing, which is done in the form of a Bar Mitzvah service and celebration. We would all do well to connect with and see ourselves as part of the Commonwealth of Israel, and to emulate this Bar Mitzvah practice in our own communities, thereby exorcising the Catholic ghost of "original sin" forever from our lives and the lives of our families.

Why, then, do we hear or read from various spiritual sources that a man's removal of seed when his body's internal storage capacity is full constitutes sin? One reason is the false doctrine of original sin referenced earlier, along with abysmal ignorance of Torah instruction and how to understand it. Another reason is that frequently this type of teaching comes from female "prophetic" figures such as Ellen White in Seventh-day Adventism. They may observe much trouble resulting from a man's irresponsible use of his seed, and arrive at the conclusion that the only legitimate, non-sinful release of a man's seed from his body is that which occurs during sexual intercourse with his wife .... and since it is impossible for a woman to live inside the mind and body of a man, such a conclusion may seem very reasonable to her. If, however, these undoubtedly well-intended female "prophetic" figures could experience the reality of masculinity for a few months, it would literally "blow their minds," so to speak, and they would quickly realize that no amount of prayer, devotion, will power, cold showering, or anything else would prevent the continual production, accumulation, and elimination of seed in a man's body, NOR SHOULD IT, because that production of seed is the highest function of a man's body, is completely normal, and is one of his greatest assets in discharging his duty to Elohim and to his fellow men.

My suggestion for such “prophetic” sisters is that they let mature men grounded in the Torah teach junior men how to be men, and if they really want to get involved, or if there are no suitable men available to teach, that they restrict their involvement to repeating the words of Scripture to those who need to hear. While it’s certainly possible for our Creators to call women into prophetic ministry, it is of interest to me personally, since I grew up in a Seventh-day Adventist milieu, to note that in early days of the movement two men (Hazen Foss and William Foy) were given a divine call to prophetic ministry and according to some SDA historians they turned it down, after which a woman, Ellen White, was given the same call and accepted. From this bit of history I believe we can learn that our Creators would prefer to use men in the prophetic calling if men can be found who are willing to be used.

What Is and What Isn’t “Onanism”

Onan is one of only a few infamous characters in the Scripture Hall of Shame such as Uzzah and Ananias and Saphira whose behaviour so disgusted and angered our Heavenly Father that He dropped them dead right at the scene of their crime. He had a wicked brother that YAHUAH also put to death (Genesis 38:7) who left behind a childless wife, and based on what happened to Onan, we might speculate that both Onan and his brother had the same idea about how to carry on married life, and our Heavenly Father would have none of it. After his brother died, under Levirate law Onan then had the privilege of marrying his brother’s wife if he wished, and raising up children with her in order to carry on his brother’s name. He decided to go ahead and marry her, but instead of properly consummating the sexual act with her, he withdrew before ejaculation and spilled his seed on the ground, i.e. he enjoyed the pleasure of sexually relating with her, but he did not give her what she needed to bring forth children because he didn’t want the hassle and expense of raising them to carry on his brother’s name rather than his own.

Many efforts have been made to explain exactly what it was about Onan’s course of action that was so wrong and displeasing to our Heavenly Father. Some of these efforts have accurately analyzed the situation and some have not, so for the record I’d like to provide a definition of “Onanism” which incorporates all the understanding we have gained so far in this study. Narrowly and literally defined, the sin of “Onanism” is committed when a man engages in sexual intercourse with a woman of child bearing age, but withdraws from the woman before ejaculation and spills his seed outside of her so as to avoid the arrival of children from the sexual act. This definition is fairly easy to come up with by simply studying the story of Onan as recorded in Scripture. However, with our spiritual eyes opened by the Ruach ha Kodesh so that we can see truly wondrous things in Torah and the rest of Scripture, we can now provide a much broader and more comprehensive definition as follows: “Onanism” is fundamentally a spiritual defect in a man’s thinking which leads him to desire sexual pleasure with a woman of child-bearing age while avoiding the arrival of children with their attendant requirements for work and expenditure. The sin of “Onanism” may be committed through a physical act of withdrawal (i.e. coitus interruptus) as in Onan’s case, or it may be committed through the practice of abortion or any contraception method including the totally hypocritical Catholic Church approved “rhythm method.” It is not committed when a single man eliminates his seed when his system is full (uninspired dictionary definitions notwithstanding), when a married man has sexual relations with a post-menopausal wife or with a wife who is having difficulty becoming pregnant, or when a married man eliminates seed when his system is full because his wife of child-bearing age is pregnant, is in a state of tumah due to her monthly period, does not desire intercourse, or if he cannot accept more children for a period of time due to insufficient energy, money, or space; as the wise man Solomon put it, there's a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing. (Ecclesiastes 3:5)

If you find yourself in this latter circumstance, you would be advised to explain your situation to your Heavenly Father in prayer, and express a willingness to have and raise more righteous children if your circumstances are improved. It may just prove to be a “winning argument,” so to speak, because it seems that our Heavenly Father, His Son, and the entire Divine Family just love having children around (Matthew 19:13-15, 18:1-6), and if you do find that things change for the better in your life situation, you should make sure that you hold up your end of the bargain! Keep in mind that our Heavenly Father runs His affairs like a businessman (Matthew 25:14-46, Luke 19:12-27), with a very sharp eye on the bottom line and what (or in this case who) gives him a good return on his investment.

Questions and Answers

QUESTION: Is there any moral problem with sexual relations after my wife has passed beyond her child bearing years?

ANSWER: No, you violate no Scriptural principle if you engage in sexual relations with her, nor do you violate any Scriptural principle if you do not engage in sexual relations with her if she does not want them, in which case male baseline/default sexual function guidelines would apply as discussed earlier.

QUESTION: We are trying to have children but none have arrived; what should we do?

ANSWER: Keep trying, and remember that ultimately YAHUAH is in charge of who arrives amongst us and when, and He may intend for your child or children to arrive later in your lives, as with Abraham and Sarah, and Zachariah and Elizabeth. Professional fertility assistance may also be useful, as may the impartation of spiritual blessings. William Ligon Sr., author of “Imparting the Blessing,” is aware of 200 infertile couples who were blessed according to Scriptural principles and went on to receive much desired and loved children from their Creators. Search YouTube for “william ligon sid roth imparting blessings” to hear him tell the story.

QUESTION: I am involved in a same sex relationship or have same sex attraction; what should I do?

ANSWER: Your mind has been perverted by our adversary ha satan, and if you continue in your present state of mind you will not enter the Eternal Kingdom of YAHUAH. (Revelation 21:8) However, before you throw up your hands in desperation and give yourself over to your sinful desires, let me point out that thanks to the diligent efforts of the enemy of all our souls, almost everyone’s mind is perverted to one degree or another, including the minds of those with unlawful heterosexual attraction (including porn addiction), sexual attraction to children, sexual attraction to animals, and sexual attraction to close relatives. Every one of those sinful desires must be repented of so that it can be paid for by the blood of the Lamb, and then by the grace of YAHUAHSHUA those thoughts and any actions which accompanied them must be put out of the life. Pray for strength from our Creators to assist you in this reformation, and then do your part and eject everything from your mind and life that does not conform to the mind and image of Elohim.

QUESTION: What is the common item found in every household that you promised to tell us about, which has been used to obtain the same “benefits” and power as that obtained by “traditional” spirit cooking?

ANSWER: I’ve brought one of these items with me today to show you; are you ready to take a look? (take coat hanger from witch’s cauldron and hold up) Here it is .... a coat hanger. Let me explain.

Before the abortion component of the conventional witchcraft business model was co-opted by the medical profession with its shiny curettes to scrape the baby off the inside of the womb, forceps to extract the baby body parts, and razor sharp scalpels to sever the spinal cords of babies still alive after extraction .... the coat hanger was the witch's tool of choice to get the job done. And after getting the job done, standard procedure in witchcraft covens was and is for the witches to consume, as in EAT, the baby, after which the devil supplies them with familiar spirits to carry out their requests; you can listen to or watch Zachary King on the internet as referenced earlier for confirmation and more details, if you can stand them. Nowadays, taking your harvest of the fruit of the womb with you to a luncheon party with Hillary Clinton and John Podesta would certainly help you climb the ladder of success to a prominent position amongst the dark state pedovore (child eating) globalist elite that manipulate and destroy humanity through their shadow government of principalities, powers, rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places. (Ephesians 6:12) Sick!

By the way, speaking of Hillary Clinton .... rumour has it that after she lost the 2016 election, someone wiretapped her home phone and overheard a conversation between her and the devil that went something like this:

Hillary to the devil: "You said I'd win!"

The devil to Hillary: "You said you had a soul..."

Now, I can't vouch for the authenticity of this report, but Hillary Clinton is definitely one of the most soul-less, diabolical individuals to ever walk the corridors of power in any country on Planet Earth, a woman who has left dozens of dead bodies in her wake as she pursues her life long quest for her own holy grail, the presidency of the United States of America. She is a true modern day Jezebel, as is positively proven in Jonathan's Cahn's excellent book entitled "Paradigm," and as Jonathan also explains, President Donald Trump is the precise counterpart of Jehu in the Biblical narrative, who was tasked by YAHUAH with the destruction of the entire wicked house of Ahab and Jezebel (II Kings 9&10) and who stayed on his assigned mission until it was completely accomplished. My prayer is that our modern day Jehu will complete his divine assignment with the same diligence.

QUESTION: How are the practices discussed in this study connected to the women's liberation /emancipation movement commonly referred to as "feminism"?

ANSWER: When a man is willing to engage in or wants sexual relations with a fertile woman without wanting children in return (i.e. he wants to give a fertile woman biological direction that he does not want her to respond to), he is setting the stage for any other direction from himself to be disregarded or ignored by her at her will. Viewed from the woman's perspective, if she is expected or is willing to allow her body to be used for sexual relations without any desire or expectation that she follow the biological instruction she receives and bring forth children, she can and will feel completely free to ignore or disobey any other instruction coming from her man, thus setting the stage for major marital conflict and breakdown. Stated another way, through their objectification of women and desire for sex without children, MEN are primarily responsible for the rise of modern “feminism,” and to the degree that women are willing to be objectified and used simply for the gratification of sexual passion, they share responsibility for the utter social chaos that exists in our society today.

QUESTION: My wife and I just love Planet Earth! We travel a lot, we’re members and supporters of the Audubon Society, the Sierra Club, the World Wildlife Fund, we watch the Discovery Channel, and so on .... you get the idea. Everything we’ve been reading and watching in the media has been saying that too many people is the biggest danger our planet faces, so we decided when we got engaged that the best way we could do our part to save the planet would be to not have children. We have used contraception since we got married, plus an abortion once when our contraception failed, or (alternate scenario) we opted for surgical sterilization. We honestly thought that we were doing the right thing, but after reading this study it has become clear that we’ve been drinking globalist kool-aid (aka “wine of Babylon” in Scripture) and in the eyes of our Heavenly Father we have sinned, and through our use of contraception and abortion we have been forbidding our little children from coming to Him, in violation of our Messiah’s instruction to “suffer (or bring forth and nurture and guide) little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.” (Matthew 19:14) What should we do?

ANSWER: You are guilty of what is referred to in Scripture as a “sin of ignorance,” which needs to be confessed, repented of, and covered by the blood of the Lamb YAHUAHSHUA just like every other kind of sin. (see Leviticus chapters 4 and 5) Then, you need to stop using contraception (or in the alternate scenario, get your sterilization surgically reversed, which is not always successful but should be attempted) and endeavour to give your Creators what they have always wanted from your marriage, a home full of children who are taught the holy ways and precepts of Torah/Scripture. If you are not able to have your own children, try to adopt and/or support children in orphanages or poor families. And finally, when your childless globalist friends rebuke you for your “apostasy” as they see you now with the children you have been given, take the opportunity to give them some education; who knows, they may have arrived at the same teachable moment you did when you made your course correction. Help them to understand that when they determine proper population density by counting people they have fallen into exactly the same trap and proud apostasy that King David fell into when he decided to quantify the strength of Israel by counting the people with a national census. (II Samuel 24) Explain to them that Planet Earth does indeed have a huge overpopulation problem – it’s filled with hordes of proud, rebellious, immoral, wicked people who couldn’t care less about pleasing their Creators. Then explain to them that it also has a huge underpopulation problem – there are so few truly righteous people on it that when our Messiah returns He will wonder if He will even be able to find faithful, righteous souls. (Luke 18:8) Tell them that our Creators made this earth for faithful, righteous souls like you are raising your children up to become (Matthew 5:5), and that when the conflict between good and evil is over and our Creators have flushed all proud, rebellious, immoral, wicked people into the Lake of Fire and Brimstone (Revelation 21:8), you and your children will inherit the earth and live on it forever. (Matthew 5:5) Let them know that when your Creators ask you “Where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock?” (Jeremiah 13:20), you are so looking forward to introducing your children to Them, and to hearing the words “Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Master.” (Matthew 25:21)

QUESTION: If contraception and abortion are murder, then governments should make laws against them (which has historically been the norm, by the way) the same as they make laws against other forms of murder .... but would that not then be some kind of bad or dangerous alliance between the state and the church as some have contended ?

ANSWER: No, exactly to the contrary; not only would it NOT be some kind of bad or dangerous alliance between state and church, but rather it would be and is a moral and civil imperative for all governments to enact such laws! The divinely inspired job description for all legitimate civil government is to be is to be a sustainer or protector of those who are good, and a terror to those who are evil, wielding the sword against them as a minister of Elohim, a revenger acting on His behalf to execute His wrath on all who do evil. (Romans 13:3,4 paraphrased) The commandments of Elohim which regulate a man’s relationships with his fellow man, and all statutes flowing from them, constitute the unchanging foundation for all legitimate civil law codes. Any so-called “government” which persecutes the righteous and upholds and gives “rights” to the wicked is illegitimate in the eyes of YAHUAH, and does not deserve the respect and dues which we are enjoined in Scripture to give to legitimate civil government. As demonstrated earlier in this study, murder and witchcraft are condemned, forbidden, and classified as capital offences in Scripture, and all civil government which is blessed by Heaven will shape its laws in accordance with this inspired guidance.

QUESTION: Are there factors other than personal bad choices that are creating and/or intensifying the moral decay and social chaos we see all around us today?

ANSWER: Yes, the bad news is that satanic globalists and their social engineers have directly or indirectly put in place many such factors, including the following:

-Estrogenic, gender bending, or mind altering substances in foods (such as soy), alcohol, food packaging, synthetic fibres in clothing, pharmaceuticals, and pesticides, which damage the ability of men to be men and women to be women.

-Highly subversive teaching in even the lowest grades viciously attacking Biblical family and gender roles, and thus making it imperative to either teach your children yourselves or place them in a school that you know for sure upholds Biblical values. Knowingly placing your little children at the feet of perverted authority-figure teachers who will corrupt their childhood innocence and mold them into the image of devils will be classed as unpardonable child abuse in the final judgement.

-Media ridicule and shaming of Biblical family and gender roles, generally mocking masculinity and men in general, and putting on a pedestal to the point of worshipping femininity, women’s views, and women in general, making it very difficult for a man or a woman to begin a proper family, and to continue a proper family if one is successfully begun.

-Proliferating and in some cases “mandatory” vaccination, creating a massive increase in autism and other health problems, and causing prospective parents who observe these problems and the huge social upheaval and domestic strife that they cause, to be fearful of becoming parents themselves and having to cope with the same problems. Prospective parents need to know that vaccination is not necessary and should be avoided at all costs. They also need to know that if they feed their children a balanced plant-based diet and do not vaccinate them, it is highly unlikely that any childhood diseases they may contract will leave any lasting damage whatsoever, as contrasted with the high likelihood of lasting damage resulting from vaccines if they are used.

-Intensification of population in cities and reduction of population in the country. City living amplifies the negative effect of all the factors already discussed by increasing exposure to them and thus social pressure to conform to them, and it also facilitates monitoring of the population to detect and neutralize non-conformists. Electoral maps of the USA show that virtually all country areas vote in the direction of free enterprise and traditional family values, and virtually all big cities (and many smaller ones) vote in the direction of demonic/Democrat socialist politicians who promise to take from those who have (and have worked for what they have) and give using legalized theft through the tax system to those who don’t have (in many or most cases because they haven’t diligently worked, or because they have abused their bodies and minds with gluttonous living, immoral relationships, and addictive, damaging drugs) and which mock and attack traditional family values. Viewed with spiritual vision the electoral map of the USA reveals a body which is desperately struggling to survive in the face of rapidly metastasising malignant tumours in the form of cities which are literally sucking the spiritual and physical lifeblood of the country into themselves as they turn into stinking hell holes full of people who came to them looking for a better life and ended up as aborters, contraceptors, atheists, alcoholics, drug addicts, street defacators, sodomites, pedophiles and other types of sex perverts, money worshippers, cannibals, and occultist devil worshippers. May Heaven help us all to discern the reality of the world we are living in, and where we should establish our households for the best physical and spiritual health and well-being of ourselves and our children!

-Dilution to the point of destruction of those with Judeo-Christian values and beliefs, using waves of uneducated and unskilled so-called “migrants” or “immigrants” but in reality INVADERS who have no intention of assimilating to the Judeo-Christian heritage of Western countries, but who intend to replace that heritage with their own alien values and beliefs, creating social chaos and loss of community cohesion and draining the countries financially dry in the process using social welfare and healthcare programs put in place by devilish socialist “governments” which the invaders of course vote for and thus keep in power after they begin to squat on a country. The stage was set for this endgame by using contraception and abortion promoted by these same devilish socialist “governments,” which created the vacancies in our societies that satanic globalists are more than happy to fill with waves of invaders as mentioned above. Disgusting, but sadly we asked for it by destroying our own children, so divine providence is not preventing it from happening.

There is a terrible irony in the situation we are discussing, and that is that the very same satanic globalists who pose as saviours of the planet and “environmentalists” spend most of their time promoting all forms of moral depravity as discussed throughout this study, which we learn in Scripture (Leviticus 18:24-27) is the real cause of the desolation of the earth as it vomits out the wicked and is left as the lifeless wasteland that remains today where the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah once stood, which I have walked over and observed with my own eyes. Humanly speaking it may appear in light of our discussion above that our situation is so far gone that there is no hope, and that we and our families must ultimately disintegrate in the face of ubiquitous demonic assault. Thankfully, however, such is not the case; John the Revelator brings us a very encouraging testimony from the 24 elders who fell on their faces and worshipped before the Elohim of the entire universe, saying “We give thanks, O YAHUAH Elohim Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; AND SHOULDEST DESTROY THEM WHICH DESTROY THE EARTH.” (Revelation 11:17,18)

Sounding The Warning In Plain English

At a time when wickedness filled the Land of Israel very much as wickedness is filling our lands today, the word of YAHUAH came to Ezekiel and said “Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them a warning from me. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Yet if thou warn the wicked and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.” (Ezekiel 3:17-21) In the interests of preserving your life and delivering my own soul, what follows is a summary of the message of this study in plain English that needs no special technical or interpretative skills to understand.

If you are a man involved in a sexual relationship with a woman, and your children are being blocked or destroyed because of your decision, you are blind and ignorant, and/or: a murderer of your children, yourself, your parents, your wife, her parents, and your Messiah YAHUAHSUA; a barren fig tree that wastes space on Elohim’s precious green earth (Matthew 21:19); dishonouring your parents; a fake man; a wizard/sorcerer; an idolater who worships Molech and Baal + Asherah, i.e. the devil; a poor steward or servant; no longer in the image of Elohim/“God” and thus ineligible for citizenship in Their eternal Kingdom.

If you are a man involved in a sexual relationship with a woman, and your children are being blocked or destroyed because of her decision, you are blind and ignorant, and/or: a sucker; a fool; a simpleton; a murderer of your children, yourself, your parents, your wife, her parents, and your Messiah YAHUAHSUA; dishonouring your parents; an idolater who worships Molech and Baal + Asherah, i.e. the devil; a fake man; no longer in the image of Elohim/“God” and thus ineligible for citizenship in Their eternal Kingdom.

If you are a woman involved in a sexual relationship with a man, and your children are being blocked or destroyed because of your decision, you are blind and ignorant, and/or: a witch/sorcerer; the human biological/spiritual equivalent of a black hole in astrophysics or a prion in neuropathology; a gold digger; a fake woman; a murderer of your children, yourself, your parents, your husband, his parents, and your Messiah YAHUAHSUA; dishonouring your parents; an idolater who worships Molech and Baal + Asherah, i.e. the devil; no longer in the image of Elohim/“God” and thus ineligible for citizenship in Their eternal Kingdom.

If you are a woman involved in a sexual relationship with a man, and your children are being blocked or destroyed because of his decision, you are blind and ignorant, and/or:

used and abused; exploited; desecrated; a sex toy; created by your Creators to be deserving of a real man rather than a fake man; a coerced participant in the murder of your children, yourself, your parents, your husband, his parents, and your Messiah YAHUAHSHUA; a coerced participant in idolatrous worship of Molech and Baal + Asherah, i.e. the devil; no longer in the image of Elohim/“God” and thus ineligible for citizenship in Their eternal Kingdom.

If you are a ministerial, medical, legal, political, or counselling professional, and you manufacture, provide, approve, ignore, or fail to warn against, any form of contraception, abortion, or sterilization, you are blind and ignorant, and/or: orders of magnitude more guilty of each of the things noted in the categories above than the general public, in that you have betrayed the trust of those who look to you for guidance and protection, and have profited from their destruction.

If you find yourself described in any of the categories above, you need to confess your sin(s) to your Creators and repent while your moment of opportunity to do so still exists. Resolve to conform your sexual behaviour or any instruction you may provide regarding sexual behaviour in the future to the image of Elohim as revealed through inspiration in the Holy Scriptures and described in this study. If you cannot understand a way to continue a sexually active lifestyle and remain in conformity to the image of Elohim in the circumstances and relationship you find yourself in, then in the language of the Messiah, “make yourself a eunuch for the Kingdom of Heaven’s sake” (Matthew 19:12), i.e. refrain from sexual relations to ensure your eternal life in the Kingdom of Heaven.

It is my sincere prayer that each one reading this study will be amongst the few that find the strait/narrow gate and blessed narrow way that leads to life, and that avoid the wide gate and broad way that leads to destruction. (Matthew 7:13,14)

“Taste and see that YAHUAH is good.” Psalm 34:8

“Our Father, which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven.” Matthew 6: 9,10

“Fear not, little flock – it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the Kingdom.” Luke 12:32
