

Debunking the 'Jesus loves you' message that is so popular today with evangelism.

To those that always preach 'Jesus loves you' and go out of their way to slander our message, this post is for you.

Did you know NOT ONCE do we find any of the Old Testament prophets preaching 'God loves you.' That should speak volumes that within 39 books, 929 chapters and 23,145 verses that was NEVER the theme.

John the Baptist was the ending of Old and started the New Testament and he NEVER preached 'God loves you' nor do we find him hugging people with a smile to show the love of God winning sinners over. Rather we find words like "Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.....O generation of vipers.....who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?.....Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance.....every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.....but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire...."

Not ONCE did he say while baptizing people 'God loves you'John failed according to what is preached today.

Not ONCE did Jesus preach in public 'God loves you' or 'I love you' those words will NOT be found in any of the four books, 89 chapters and 3779 verses you will not find those three words preached in public. Those four Gospels have 64,766 words but never 'God loves you' mentioned once in public. That John 3:16 everyone uses was said to ONE PERSON, at night and was NEVER repeated to anyone nor said in public.

Not ONCE in the book of Acts do we find 'God loves you' or 'Jesus loves you' preached anywhere within those 28 chapters, not ONE verse within its 1006 verses. Those three words are NEVER found within the 18,451 words in that book. Not ONCE was John 3:16 quoted in Acts and yet it is common today. If 'love' must be used when we witness, then Peter failed as on the day of Pentecost, he standing up with the eleven "lifted up his voice" but never said 'Jesus loves you' nor 'God loves you' (Acts 2) If 'love' must be used when we witness, then Stephen failed because he too NEVER said 'Jesus loves you' nor 'God loves you.' Instead he gave a history lesson of Israel then called them names saying "Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.”

No wonder they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth putting him to death, he never mentioned ‘love’ once in that outdoor sermon. (Acts 7)

Let’s try Paul, in Acts chapter 13 Paul meets a man named Bajesus who was a “sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew” and how did Paul win him over? He called him names saying “O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?.” After that positive message he cursed Bajesus with blindness and remember Paul was “filled with the Holy Ghost”

The book of Acts does NOT have an ending as those acts and words should still be going on today and so with that said.....you will NEVER find the words ‘God loves you’ or ‘Jesus love you’ preached within that entire book. THAT SHOULD SPEAK VOLUMES

However what we do find in all the above mentioned throughout the Bible is the word REPENT and that word seems to be aborted when evangelizing today.

And what does the sinner need to repent of?

Sin MUST be called out or a sinner will not know what to repent from.

Now IF you want to know the definition of 'love' lets allow the Bible to define that word;

“My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth”

1 John 3:18

In 'deed' is continuing to tell him whether they listen or not. Some people just like to witness where people will listen or where the gospel is appreciated and accepted.

Telling someone the TRUTH is LOVE as per 1John 3:18.

For example telling a sodomite that they are an abomination and reprobate is LOVE as per TRUTH. Telling a fornicator unless they repent they will go to hellfire is LOVE as per TRUTH.

Exposing what Mormons, Catholics, Muslims believe as false gods is LOVE as per TRUTH.

For extra credit, this next verse is said in 'red letters' it that matters to anyone

“As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent”

Revelation 3:19

Biblical LOVE is expressed with rebukes and chastening.
