

Hi Coach

Hey I know your busy, I'll keep it brief, oh we're all busy aren't we?

The Kiwi SnL boys enjoyed our first taste of standing up for the Lord and "put some hair on our chests" we stood outside parliament at the Jesus for NZ March

The supposedly Right Honourable Trevor Mallard, took it upon himself to take the name of Jesus out of our parliamentary prayer – check out our sign , so-called Christians told us they were upset with our banner, you warned us – those of our own family right, right! A few other photos attached check them out you'll be proud.

Protesters labelled Speaker Trevor Mallard as "Judas Mallard" for taking Jesus out of Parliament's opening prayer.

Speakers took to the stage to demand Mallard reverse the decision, promising the beginning of a movement to reinstate the importance of Jesus in New Zealand life.

Hey, one of the hard case things that happened on the march last week (besides my brother Pete making it on local TV news) was the satanists came out to play along with the atheists, we gave them the straight raw truth, one guy I spoke to I could see was ever learning but never coming to the knowledge of Christ.

It's true – the bonding that took place that day was like nothing experienced before, an older man with us in the faith stated it was “one of the most amazing experiences

I have ever had”, and he’s been a Christian for a long time!

We are in the process of preparing for the March for life, we are getting ready to stand against this satanic abortionist regime we face, our Prime Minister wants to decriminalise it, you know where they are heading --- full term abortion.

Thanks to you and the huddle – for the encouragement, you have no idea the impact you have on us

Sold out for Jesus
