

I don't deserve Your healing but Lord You will always deserve my praise. Through death or life may Your great name be lifted up and everything that is of me fall to the waste side. Oh Lord strengthen me that I may fight the battle with a courage Satan cannot tamper with. If You take me home or leave me here to fight a little longer may it be Your breath in my lungs and Your song on my tongue. Lord I consecrate myself to the full advancement of the Kingdom of God! Lord I love You and I can't wait to see You face to face. Amen.
