

What did that outlook lead to? I became convinced of God's existence. We still go to the Episcopal Church for all kinds of complicated reasons, but I truly despise the Episcopal Church in a lot of ways. They're for gay marriage because it's trendy. It's another way to express how hip they are. They don't care at all what God thinks of it, because they actually don't believe in God. And then the fact that they sanction abortion. Are you joking? A church is for abortion? What?

You said you and your family go to an Episcopal church for all kinds of complicated reasons. Could you un-complicate that for us? Part of it's inertia. Part is we really like the people. Part is that's the world I grew up in. I love the liturgy. I can recite it without looking at it. Dumb stuff like that. Am I going to defend that? No. It's totally indefensible. I'm a shallow guy! That's why I still go to the Episcopal Church. But I like it! I just don't want to think too hard about my money going to these pompous, blowhard, pagan creeps who run the church!
